Clearwater, Florida

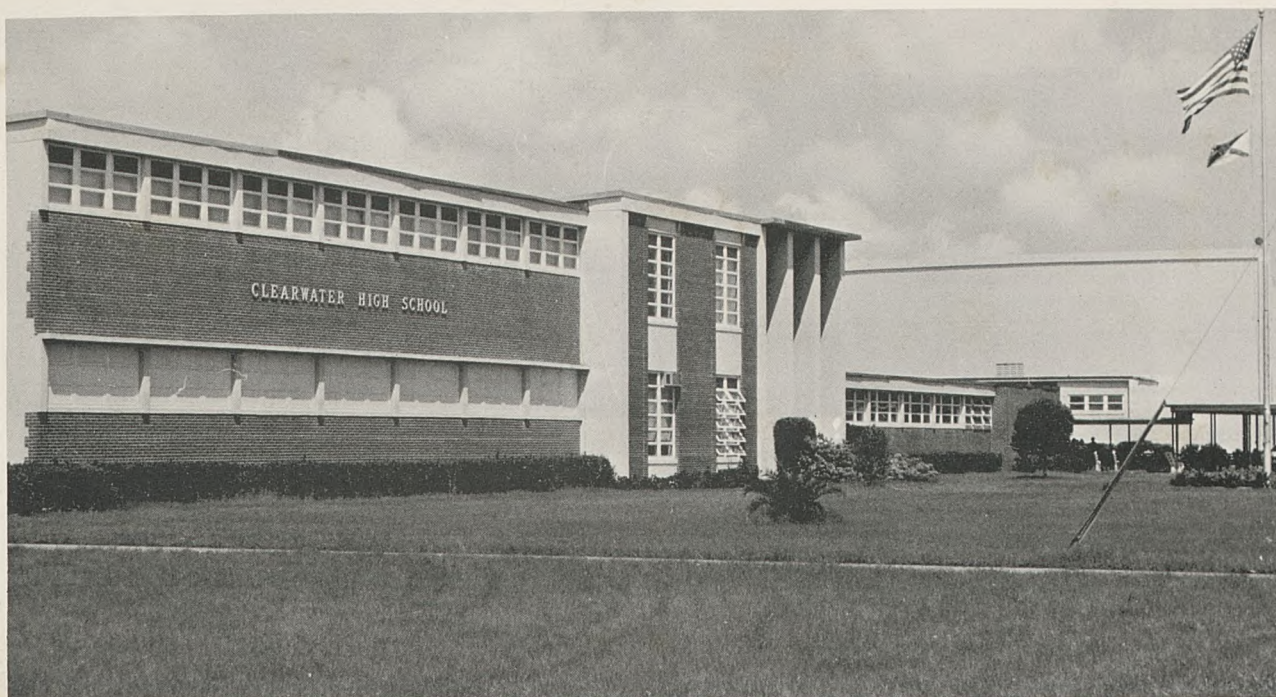

An End . . . and a Beginning

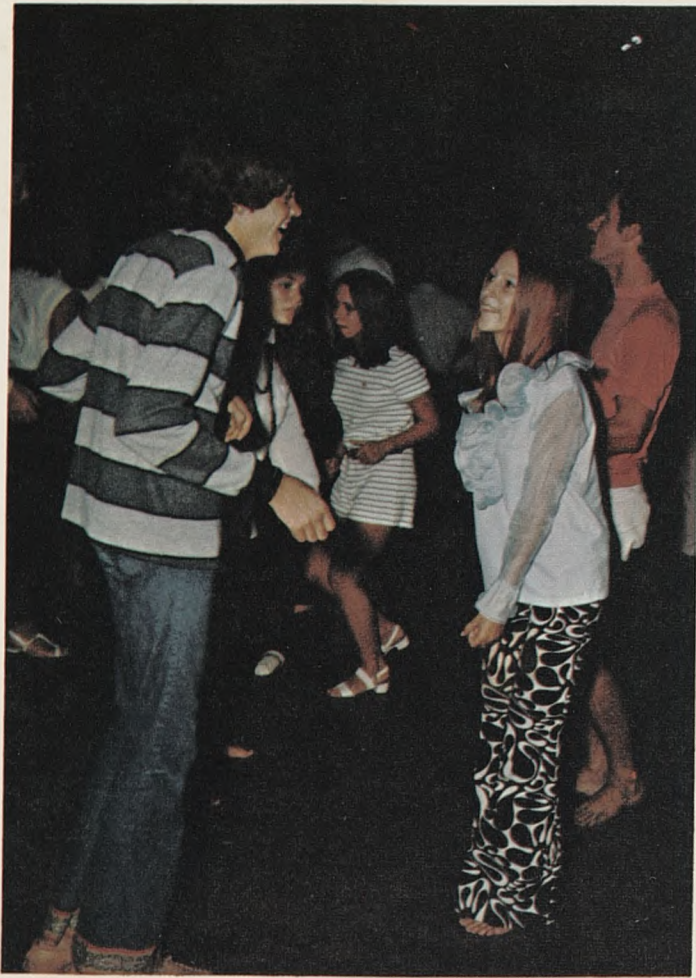

Imagine yourself a grain of sand in an hourglass
With your mother, your friends, your principal,
The boy next door, the girl who turned you down,
The VC, WASPS, DAR, Creedence Clearwater Revival,
And the people who bring "the best to you each morning" . . .
All of you specks of sand.

The whole world exists in the 1960s half of the glass.
Before you flow toward the bottom—
Your destiny in the seventies—
You must pass through the narrow orifice
Separating the two decades.
As you pass through, you are suspended in limbo . . .
You know all, but you are ignorant;
You feel secure, but you are afraid;
You seem to be hurled
Toward the bottom of the glass, yet you flow smoothly
With everyone and everything else.

You are at an end, but also at a beginning.

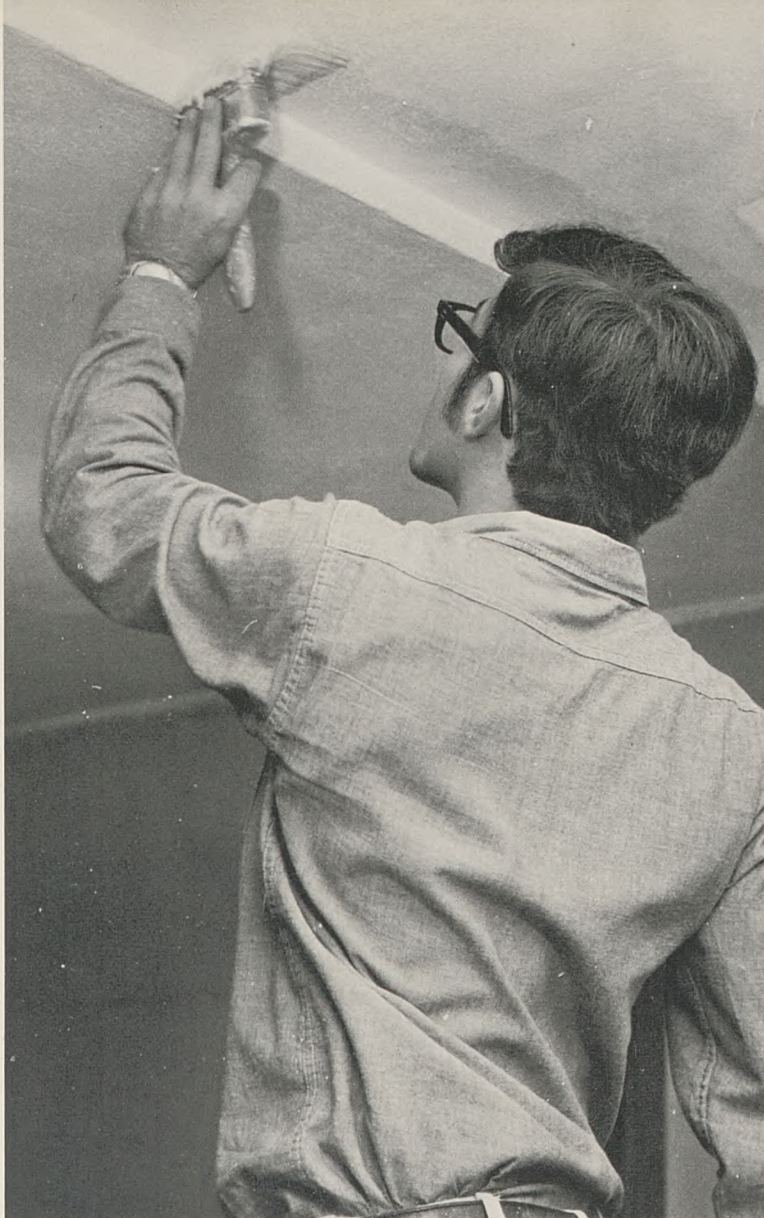

You remember people, places.
Some are vague,
Only a gray shadow behind you.
Others stand out vividly.
You try to reach back and grasp
A cherished memory
While avoiding the unpleasant ones.

admirer?) I still feel like I get all embarrassed. The end. are you going to be here next year? David

But the big concern is all the little
Endings and beginnings that merge together
To become simply NOW—doing, living—
And these are the signs of this time.

HONORS

June And Joel Chosen CHS' Most Outstanding

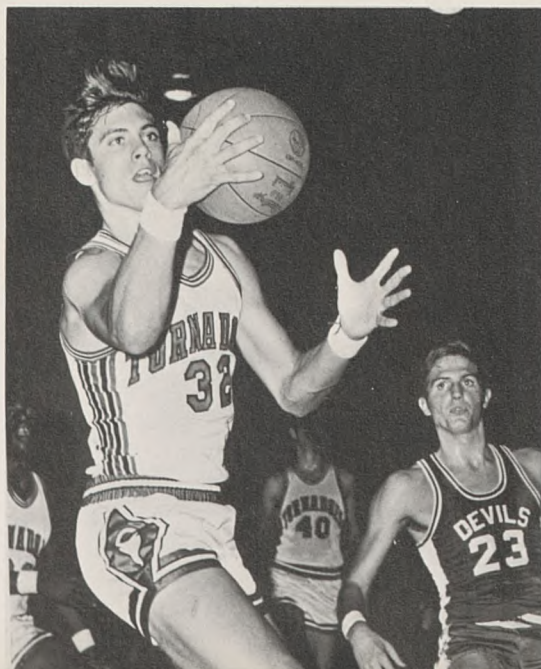

For their outstanding contributions to all areas of student life and for unselfishly giving of themselves for the betterment of CHS, June Alexander and Joel Parker were chosen Mr. and Miss CHS by the student body.

June was a cheerleader starting as a sophomore on the Junior Varsity squad and was co-captain during football season this past year. She was also an active member of the Aqua Clara staff and served as Faculty Editor. June was appropriately the Key Club Calendar Girl for June.

Nominated by the Keyettes for the "Mr. CHS" title, Joel will long be remembered as a top athlete. Parade magazine named him All American, the first Pinellas County football player named to such a position. As a sophomore, Joel lettered on the varsity football and basketball squads and was co-captain of the mighty Tornadoes as a senior. In December, Joel was elected Citizen of the Month.

Joel borrows his dad's shoulder to sign with University of Florida while Gator Head Coach Doug Dickey smiles approval.

Progress

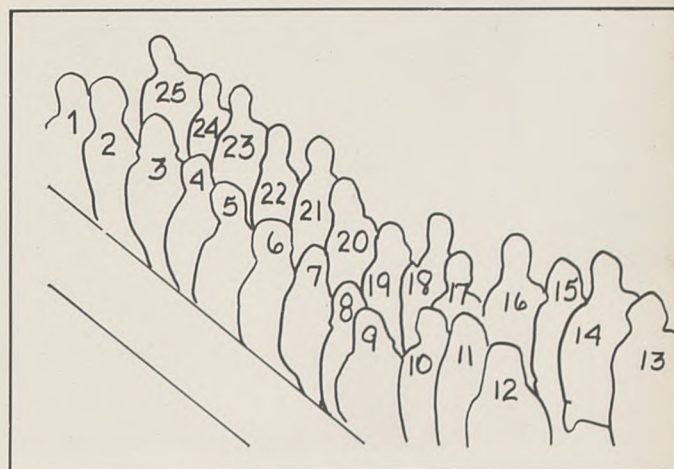

"Glory personal of thought without" ... these were familiar words to all newly tapped members of National Honor Society who were required to learn the society's pledge backwards and forwards for the initiation ceremonies. The club continued to provide free tutoring for all interested students and a "thought for the day" over the morning announcements. NHS members served as guides at the PTA "Back to School Night," decorated a car for the Homecoming parade and held an annual Christmas Tea for all club alumni. In February a district meeting of NHS was held at CHS during which plans were discussed for the state convention held in St. Petersburg in April.

NHS agrees the Homecoming Parade was great in every detail.

Quill And Scroll Bused To Parade

The International Honor Society for High School journalists was founded in 1926 by high school journalism advisors for encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in journalism. Clearwater's Edna North Knapp Chapter upheld the qualifications and inducted students outstanding on CHS's three publication staffs. This year the club entered advisor Mr. Thomas Pierce's Volkswagen Bus, covered with old Clearlight and other publication materials in the Homecoming Parade. For the Quill and Scroll scrapbook the club historians gathered from local newspaper articles about CHS activities and students. To end the year, Quill and Scroll held its annual picture sale, distributed the 1970 Aqua Clara, and afterwards sponsored a coke party which gave those who bought a yearbook a chance to have their friends sign them.

Mary Jane Benson, Elwood Aust, Joel Parker and Jane Kuypers attended Girls and Boys State to learn government policies.

Cheryl Moore was selected to be CHS's 1970 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

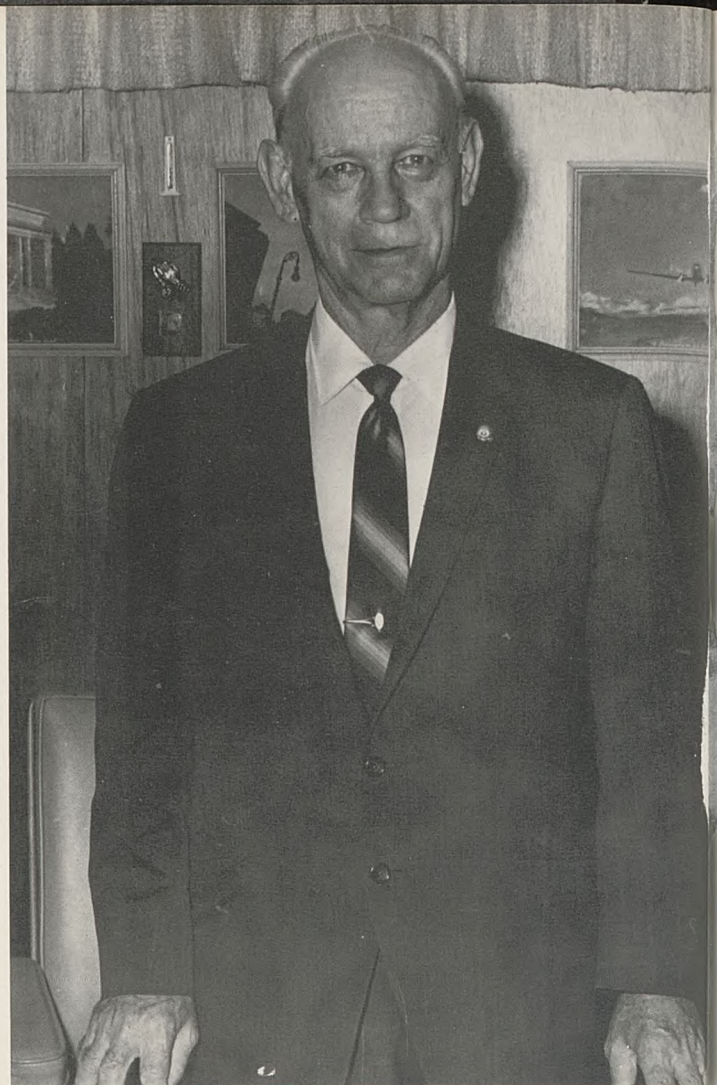

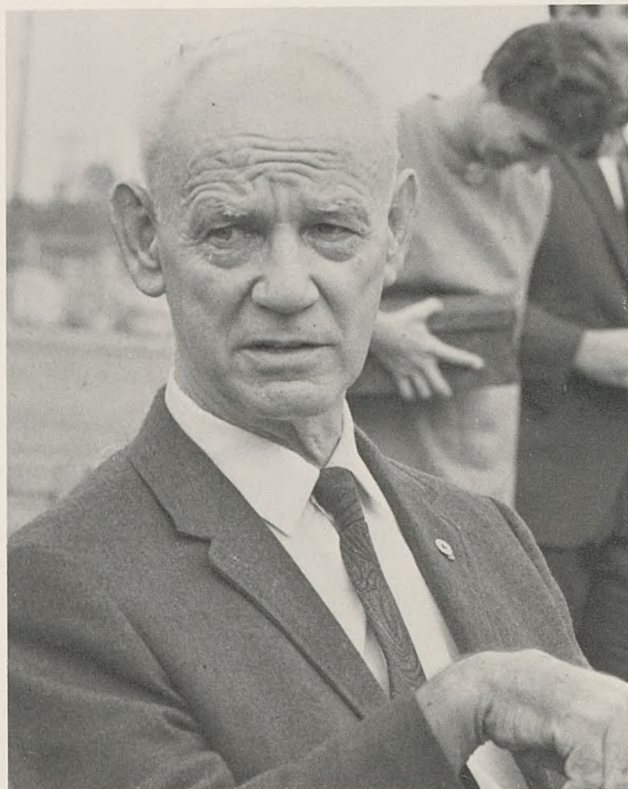

Paula Putzck, Kim Kramer, Jane Kuypers, and Norman Gundel were finalists in National Merit Scholarship tests.

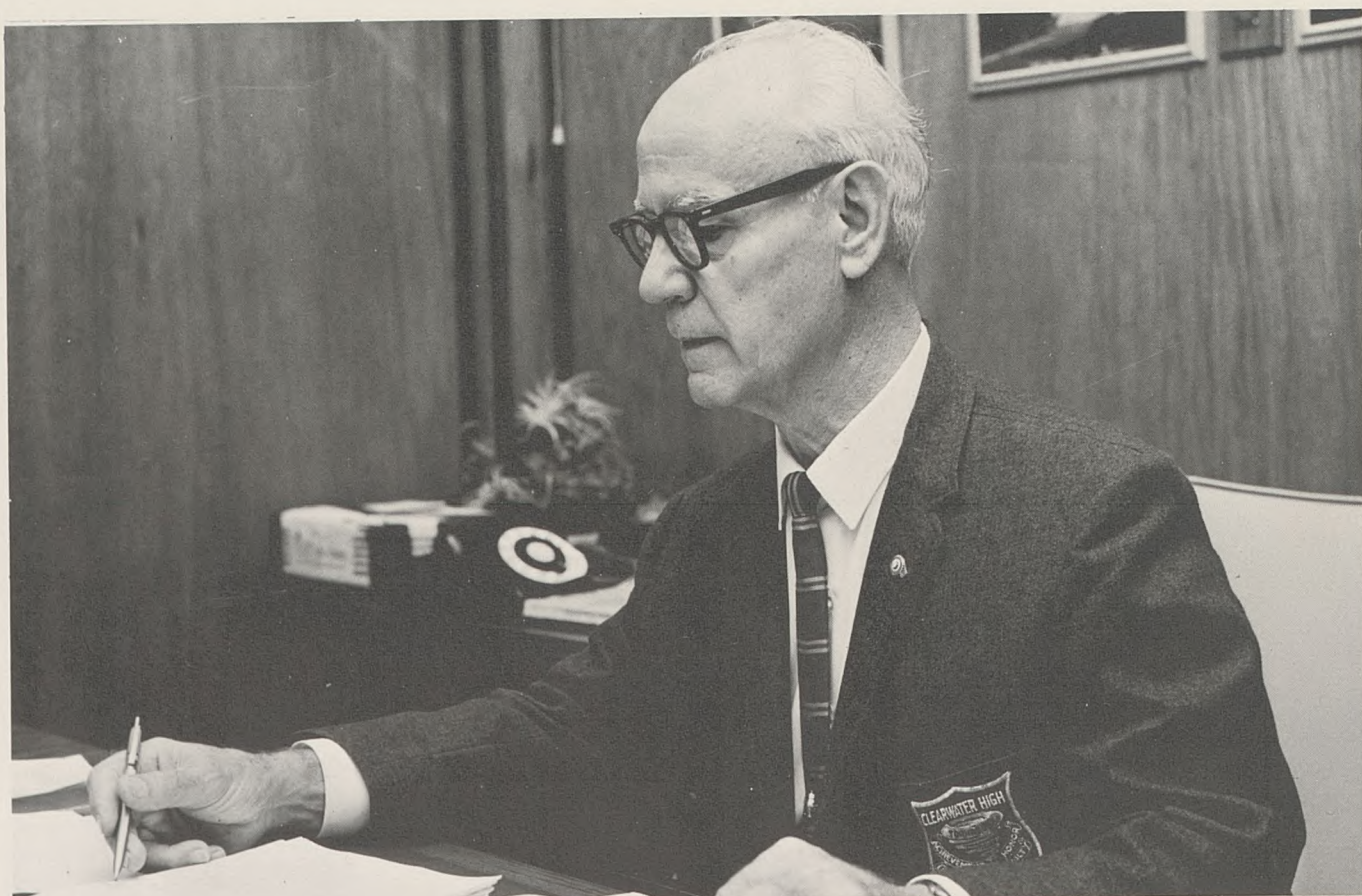

FACULTY

Mr. Glenn takes time for a little conversation ... and pauses a moment from his numerous activities.

Mr. Robert T. Glenn—CHS principal since 1955.

Principals Rate CHS Best

"Clearwater High School is rated as one of the best schools in the United States!" These were the proud words of Mr. Robert Glenn, principal of Clearwater High School. Both he and assistant principal Mr. G. L. Williams are pleased with the general student morale and interest and the increase of student and faculty cooperation. Here at CHS almost half of the students make honor roll. Statistics also show that 65% of the graduates go on to higher education, while the national average is only 40%. This year physical improvements included the repainting of the school and the addition of two portable classrooms. The administration also contemplated building a new 10,000 sq. ft. instruction room.

You missed a spot!

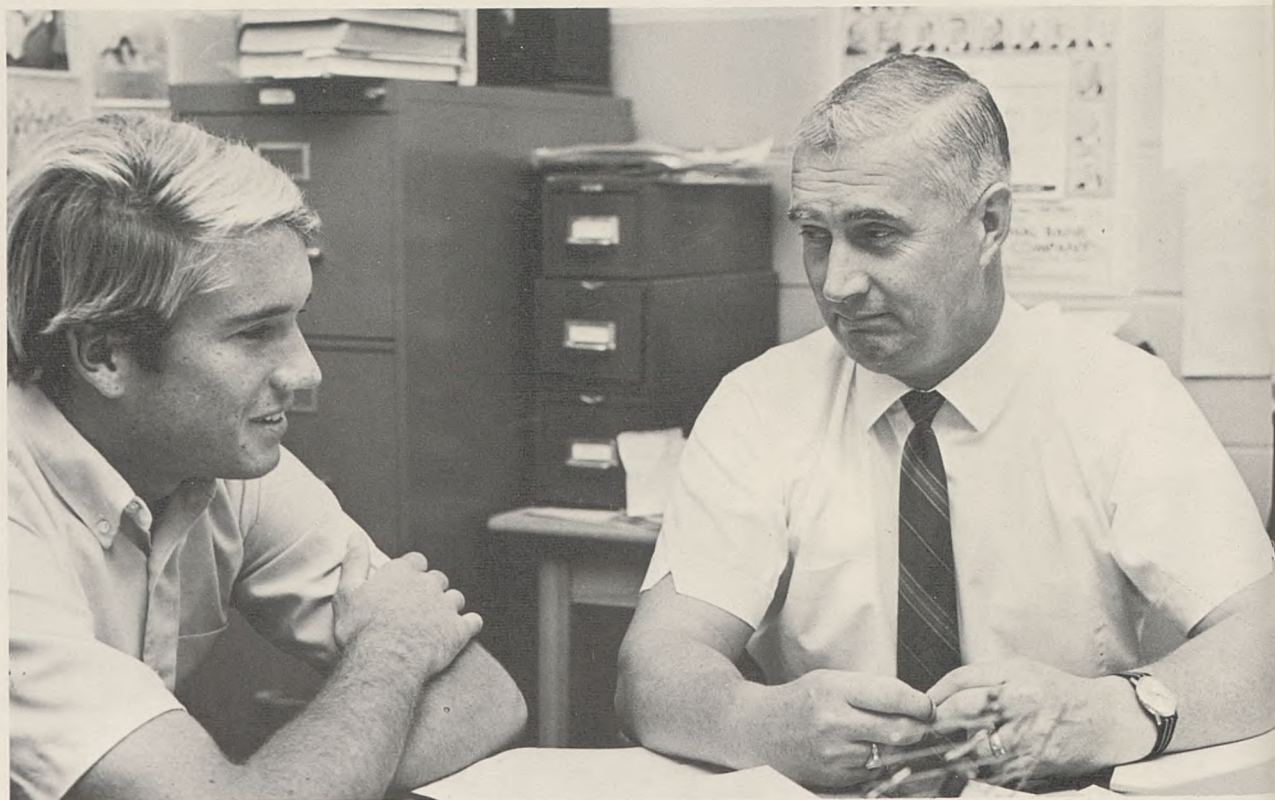

Mr. G. L. Williams—assistant principal

Deans Dealt With Discipline

Ringling telephones; piles of blue, pink, yellow, and white paper slips; girls in mini-skirts and boys with super-long hair waiting patiently to see their respective deans might well describe the typical dean scene any weekday. Miss Pat Myers, dean of girls, and Mr. Robert Sackett, dean of boys, try to guide and counsel students, although unfortunately they must discipline students whenever needed. Mr. Sackett has stated that he tries to be a friend to all the boys at CHS, giving them respect and asking for it in return. This was the first year Mr. Sackett used all boy student assistants to work in his office and to run errands.

Guidance Computed Schedules

Mr. George Clifford—guidance counselor

Mrs. Elaine Jablonski—guidance counselor

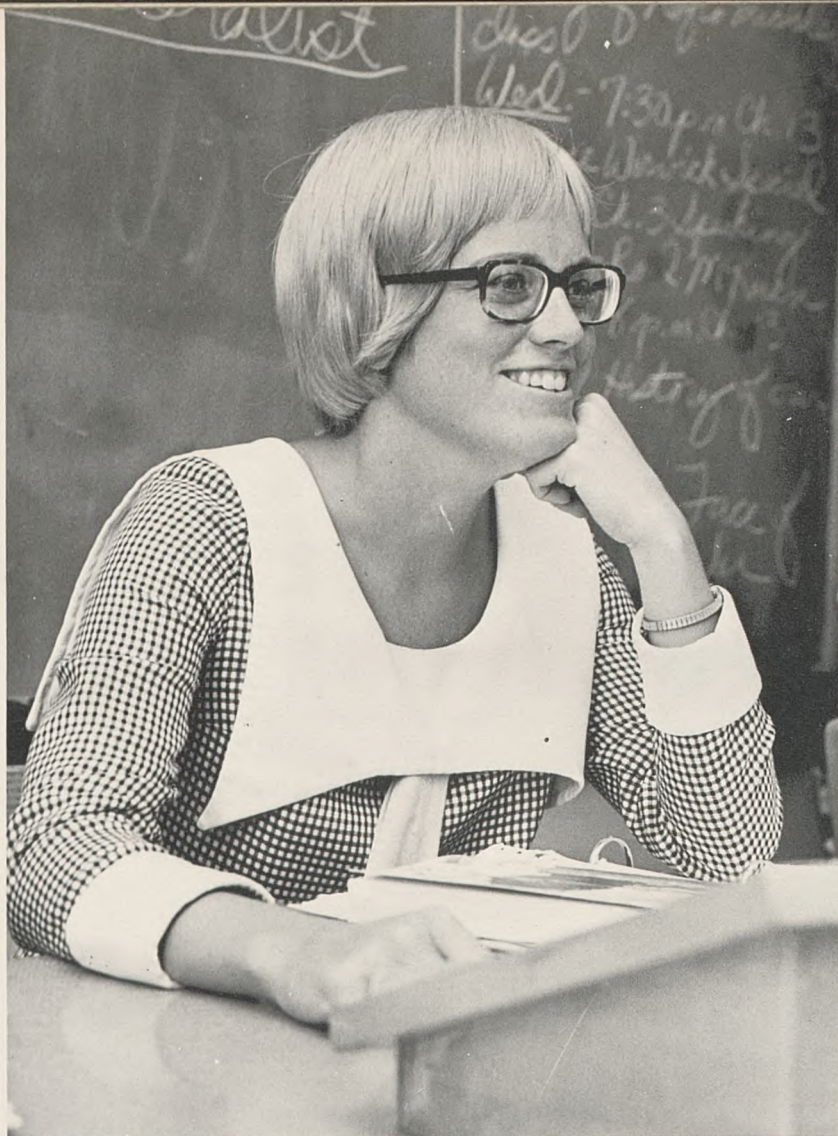

This year the CHS Guidance Dept. was really on the move. Because of the time involved in the programming of the computer, Mr. Adam Forinash, formerly registrar and guidance coordinator, became the full time registrar. Mrs. Shelby Kilgore became the new guidance coordinator along with her other duties as counselor. Mrs. Elaine Jablonski was in charge of all scholarship information and she issued several scholarship bulletins which were helpful to seniors. In November, the department sponsored a college information day for seniors who had not yet decided on their college. Topics discussed included costs, admission requirements, scholarships and other general information. Because of its success, it was repeated in the spring for the juniors.

Mr. Willis Butts—guidance counselor

Miss Leslie Taylor—Contemporary Lit., Am. Lit., Language

Mrs. Johanne Harman—Cont. Lit.

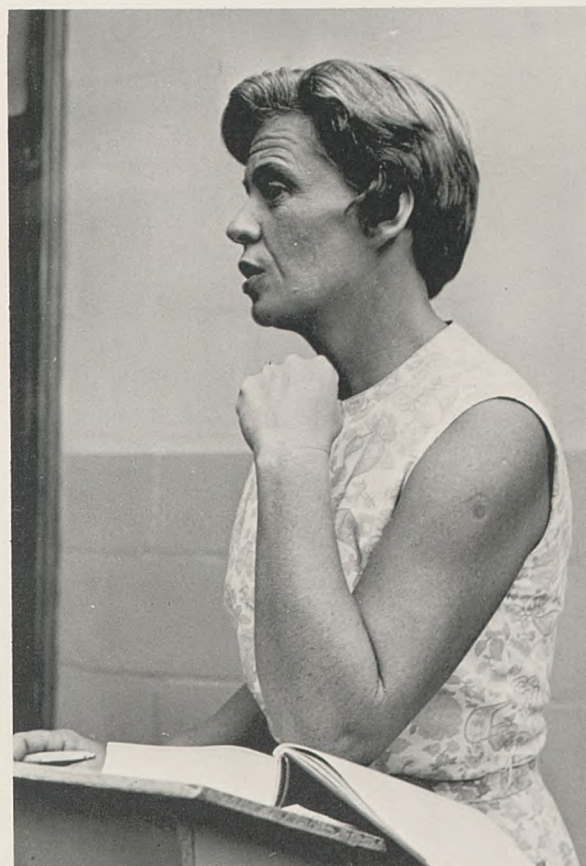

Mr. Frank Black—Humanities-Comp.

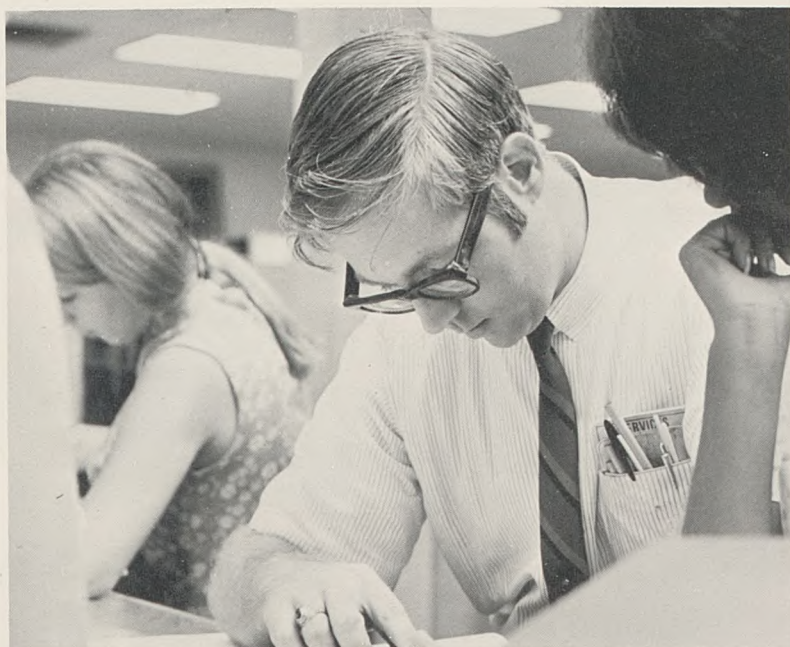

Mrs. Ruby Lewis—Eng. Lit., Comp. II

English Was Humanizing

Although the English Department contains such traditional and basic courses as language and literature, it also offers more specialized courses. Seniors enrolled in the new semester course in humanities, where they explored the many aspects of ancient and modern civilizations. Each six weeks term students individually created an art project related to the fields studied during that term. Mass Media continued its second year successfully under the instruction of new teacher, Mrs. Deloris Sutton. Mrs. Sue Lohrbauer coached this first team of Hi-Q, a high school game equivalent to College Bowl.

Afternoon Jobs Trained Students

The end of the school day became the beginning of the work day at noon for the DE, DCT, and CBE students. Under the leadership of the cooperative education teachers, each student learned job skills needed in his particular field of business. Distributive Education students learned about rental merchandising, and advertising necessary to their jobs in sales. Those in Diversified Cooperative Training studied job skills, employee organizations and unemployment compensation. Students enrolled in Cooperative Business Education trained in office procedures at CHS; at noon they proceeded to their office jobs.

Concepts Course, New Workbooks Made Math Mod

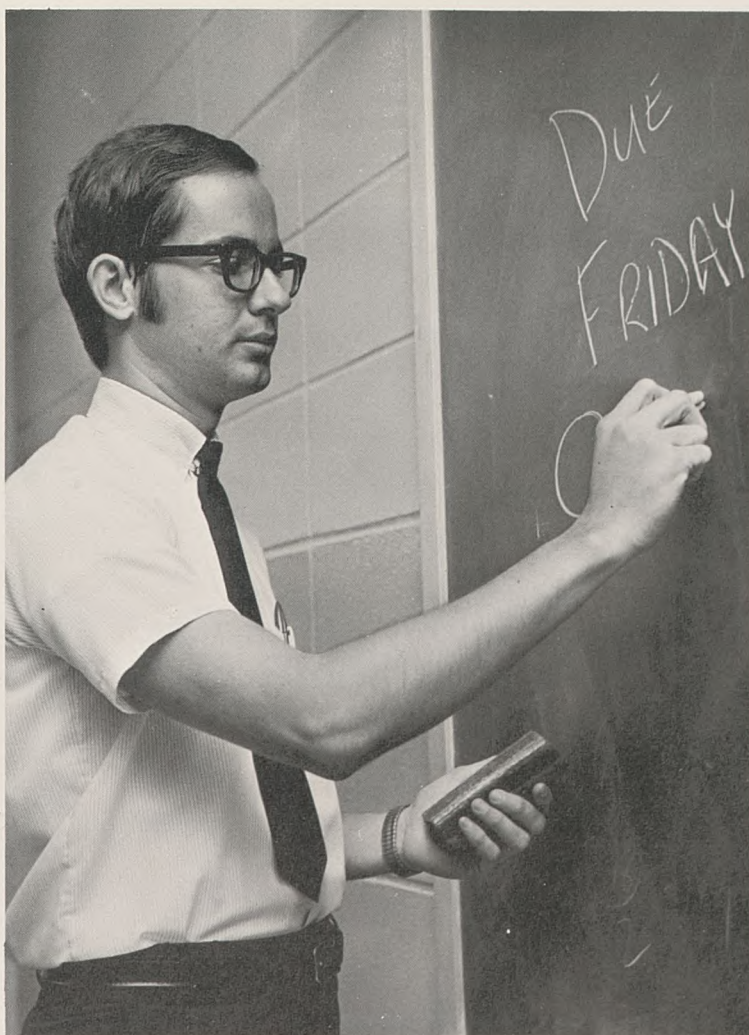

Instead of plunging right into Algebra II after they finished Plane Geometry last year, some students decided to join the new Math Concepts course, a basic introduction to Algebra II. Students Didn't Drop Acid

The chemical formula for this year's successful Science Department was composed of elements new to CHS: Mr. Daryl Gessler, Mr. Norman Weaver, Mr. Robert Gliha, and Miss Helen Wilcox. They along with the other science teachers formulated methods to aid the students in understanding the many different fields in the science world. Students in Chemistry Study, an advanced chemistry course involving much lab work, received Chem Study books and lab manuals.

Social Studies Socked It To 'Em

The Social Studies department at CHS had the same number of teachers as last year. With the increase in numbers of Social Studies students, however, Mr. Sal Gaither and Mr. Ray Rilling, both who previously taught in classrooms, instructed lecture style in the auditorium. Six classes with 150 students each exercised the use of several overhead projectors. Mr. Stephen Gerakios taught Americanism vs. Communism without textbooks. His intern, Mr. Nofton, instructed for one six weeks of the first semester.

Flight Plan Change For

Although it appeared that a new pilot training course was launched here at CHS, the lab in reality is the new language lab in B-7. This laboratory relieved the strain on the other lab and provided the opportunity for all classes to have lab time almost every day. Besides the lab, students also made wide use of the tape recorders. This school year marked the addition of three new language courses: Russian I, Spanish V, and French V. A few French and German students proceeded at their own pace in independent study programs. Upper level classes of French and Spanish visited the SPJC campus to view movies in their respective languages with English subtitles.

P. E. Offered Senior Lifesaving

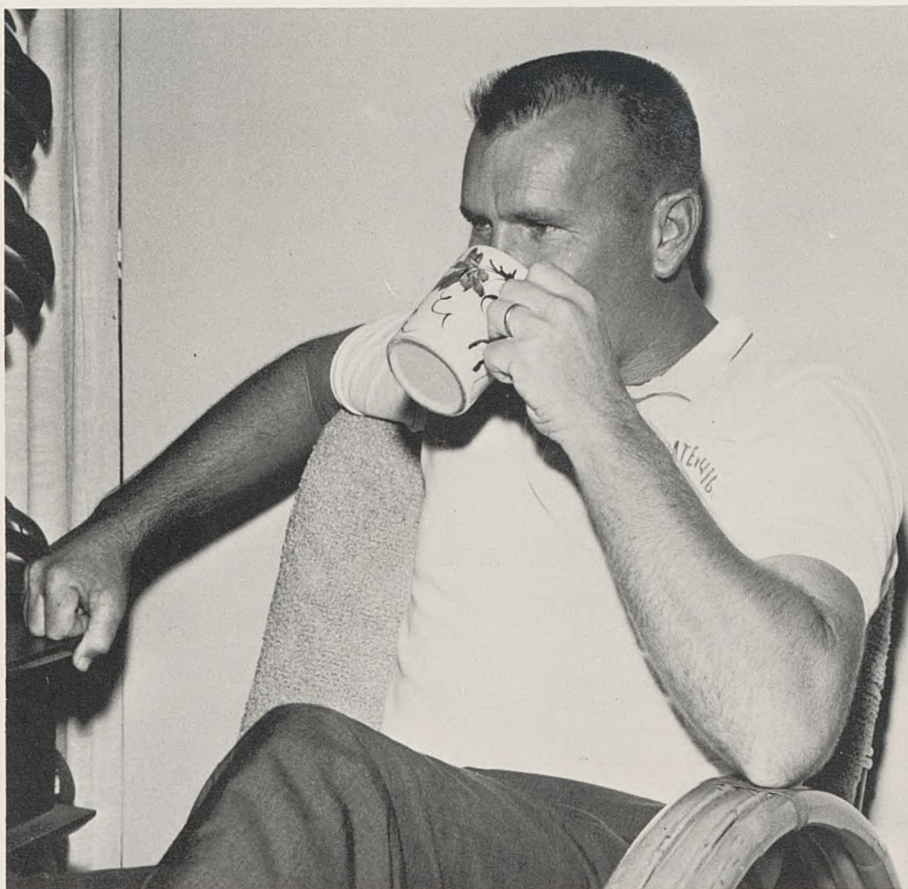

Even though Bobby Walker Pool has been in existence for six years, this year marked the first time a course in Senior Lifesaving was offered. Only boys, however, could take the course this year. Juniors and seniors participated in more individual programs. Girls employing ropes and wands created dance routines. View equipment was purchased so the girls could try their hand at flag football while the boys took up golfing. At the very beginning of the year the gym was given a new coat of paint which turned everything a shade of school spirit scarlet.

Toddlers Teach Homemakers-To-Be

At sometime during the year, most students noticed the presence of little wide eyed toddlers clutching anxiously to the hand or skirt of a C.H.S. student. These youngsters served as one day's program for the home economics course on child development. Besides this course and the more familiar ones of clothing and textiles; food and nutrition, girls also enrolled in other worthwhile courses like Housing and Family Living. Housing included information about interior decorating while the Family Living offered students pointers on how to get along with others in the family unit.

Drivers' Ed. Shifts Automatically

Because of the new 1970 driving law stating that no one under 18 shall receive a driver's license until he has completed a course in Driver's Education, the CHS Driver's Education department was ominously faced with an enrollment of more than double the previous enrollment of five to six hundred. This situation would require the addition of at least one teacher to this year's three teachers, and also many student assistants. Plans for a new and larger driver's range at a new location and an adjacent classroom are already underway. Although intending to follow through with the three-phase study of highway driving, range driving, and class instruction, the department hoped to obtain driving simulations which would give students practice in driving without great risk.

Learning Business Was Their Business

The Business Education Department prepared students for a place in today's business world. Included in the business education program were typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and business law, math, and English. This year the business education teachers introduced several new ideas to the school, especially in the school store, which is also the department concern. The store operated at different hours than before, staying open during lunch hours. It also sold football tickets and "Clearlights."

Main Office Clicked With Activity

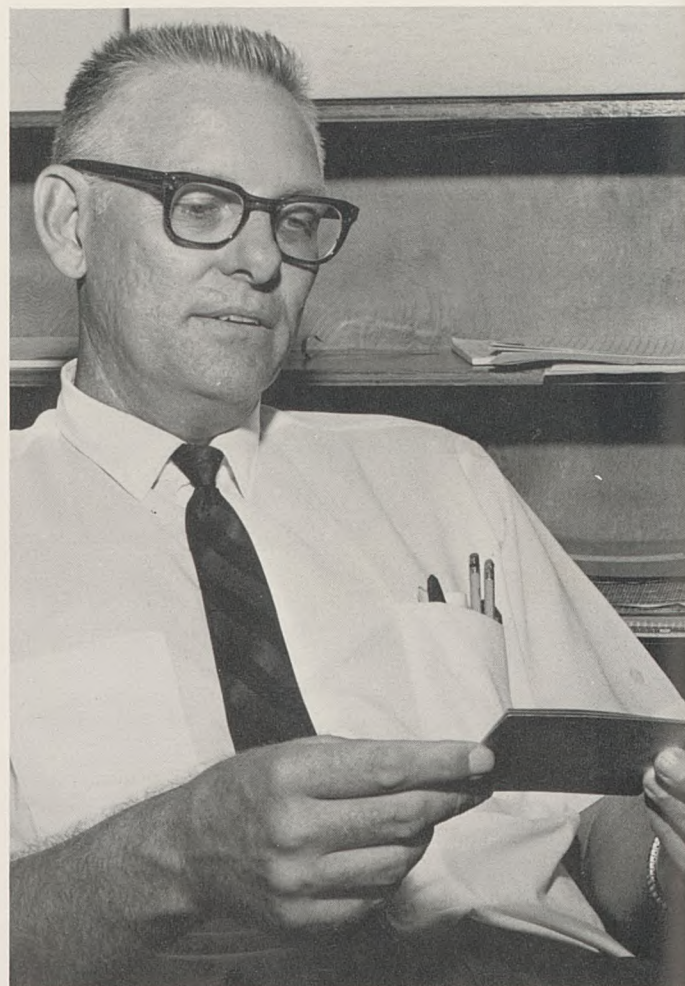

Clicks and clacks of everything from typewriters to duplicators were the sounds of Clearwater's central organ, the main office. The focal point for running an efficient school, the main office was the scene of bustling activity. Six secretaries including CHS's new addition, Mrs. Annette Batchelor, met demands of school faculty and administration. A never-ending flow of money, receipt books, and signature sheets in and out of the office kept the bookkeeper's adrenalin flowing.

Media Center: Educational Entertainment

Because of further improvements, the benefits of the new media center increased over those of last year. Many helpful and convenient changes were made. To the foyer two display tables, educational as well as decorative, were added. Such facilities as listening labs consisting of tapes and records which can be checked out, viewers with accompanying tapes provided educational entertainment. Additional study carrels and an increase in book, newspaper, and magazine supply also enhanced the library's resources. During the early part of the school year, the library accommodated classes of students while classrooms were being painted.

STUDENT LIFE

Class Of '70 Wins Again

A kaleidoscope of activities was Homecoming '69. For the first time, a whole weekend was devoted to the big event. As the traditional Tornado Tales told the story of the happening, a radiant Queen Cali Brown and her court gazed on. Surprise MC for Tornado Tales, the Horny Devil, alias John Winston, introduced the football team, skits, and class floats. The class of '70 float won for the second year. After Friday night's victory over the St. Pete Green Devils, on Saturday night, the dance took place in the gym to the sounds of The Bath. At 11:30 multicolored balloons poured onto the floor to tell everyone that Homecoming '69 had come to an end.

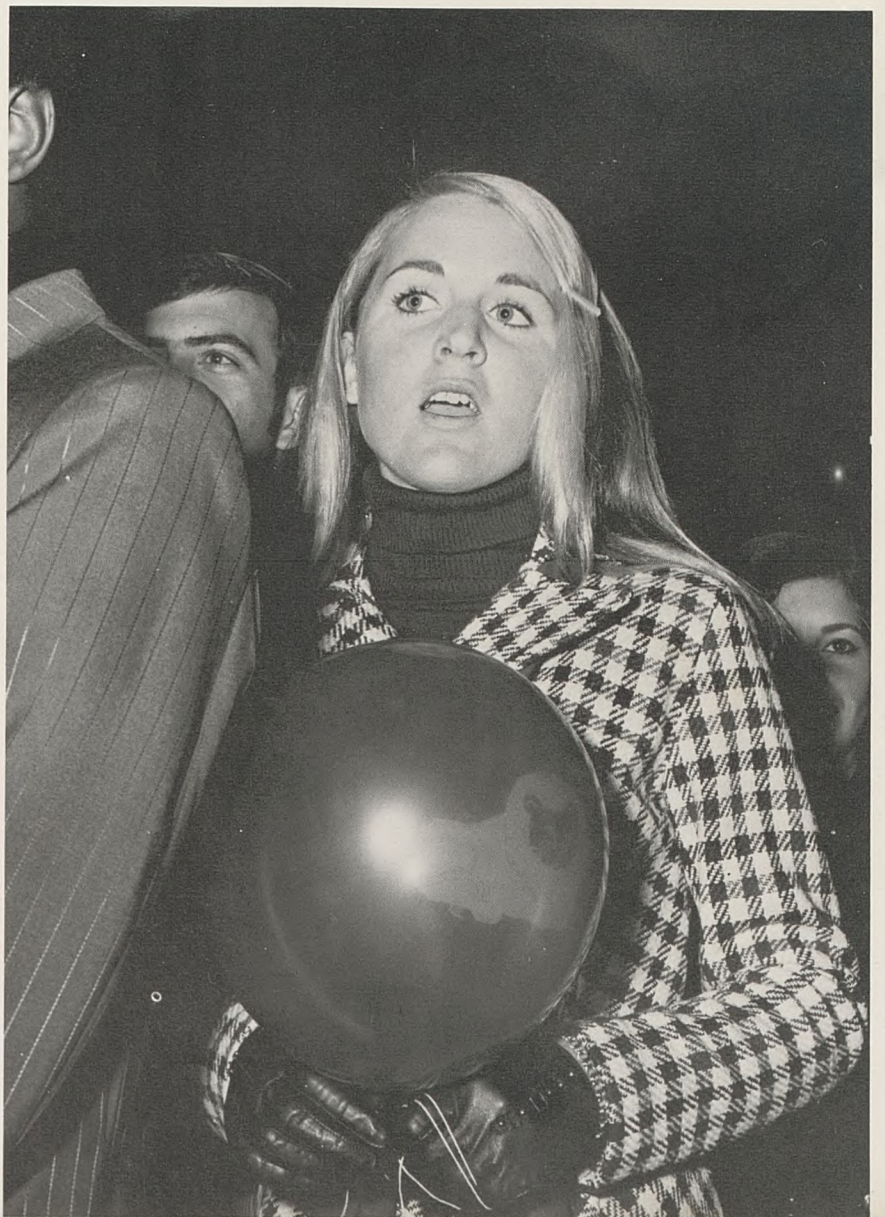

Umm good—Chew that Devil Stew!

Mary Gerlach anxiously awaited the kick-off to launch her balloon.

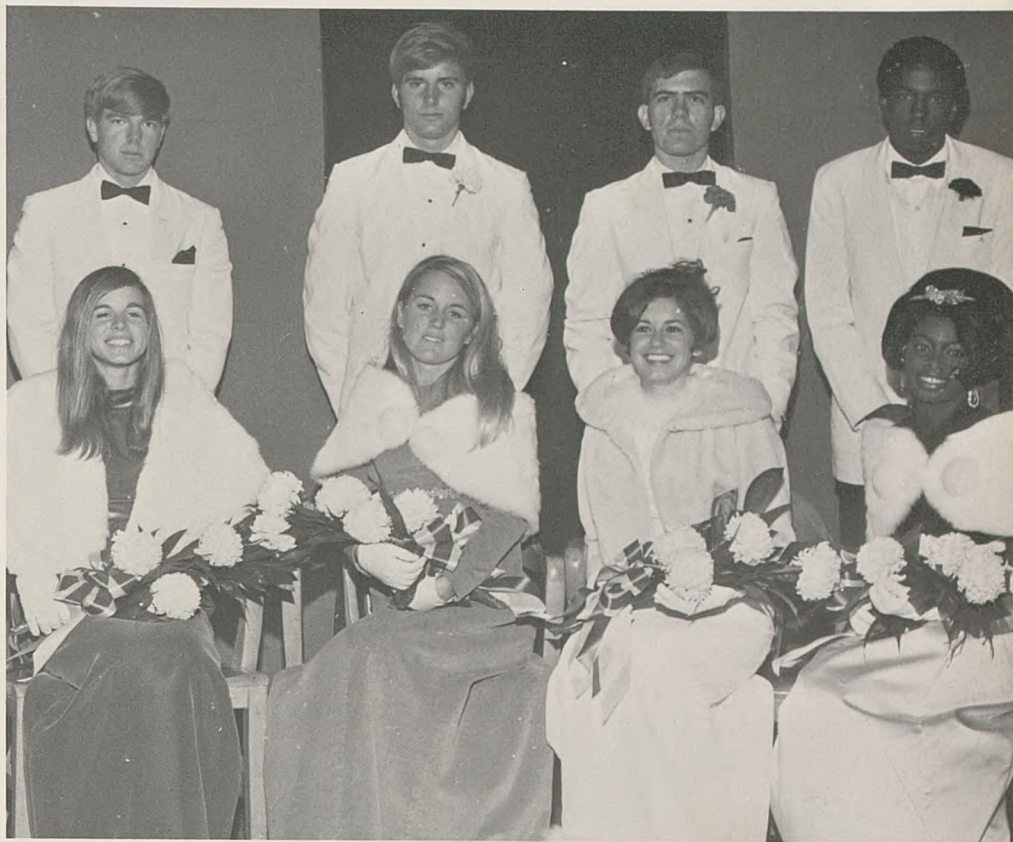

Tracey Reeder, escorted by John Cooper, and Pat Tendl, escorted by John Winston, represented the junior class in our 1969 Homecoming Court.

Balloons started Homecoming kickoff with a bang.

Valentines Went To Vanity Fair

The annual Sweetheart dance was held February 14, 1970, at the YWCA. The theme of the dance was Vanity Fair and the Y was decorated with merry-go-round ponies, tissue flowers, hearts, and streamers. Paper flowers were given away as favors. Coach Sal Gaiter introduced the Sweetheart Court and their escorts. Sophomores were Janet Pace with Jim Chaney and Sharyn Wilkes with Bobby Rice; juniors: Beth McMullen with Jim Johnson and Wendy Williams with Mark Futch; seniors: Carolyn Blanton with Jim Carroza, Marnee Coryell with Steve Parsons, Jean Hooten with Lloyd Rhodes, and Emily Mijares with Jim Goulah. Coach Gaiter then introduced last year's queen, Stevie Walters, who crowned Jean Hooten 1970 Sweetheart Queen.

Audience All Ears For HARVEY

Wendy Moran as Vita Mae Simmons and Kevin Masters as Elwood P. Dowd played the leading roles of the Masque And Gavel production of Harvey. The play about the Pooka rabbit Harvey ran three nights in December and crowds multiplied from opening night to closing. Behind the scene, Masque and Gavel members devoted hundreds of hours of labor to Harvey before and during the play. As a result many new members were inducted into the drama club.

Responsibilities

Rights and privileges are important to a student. Thus, the Student Council provided an outlet where complaints and gripes could be expressed. Composed of the school's leaders, Student Council's biggest project was the organization of Homecoming combined with the efforts of Senate and ICC.

In fulfilling their annual projects, the Student Council helped coordinate the Goodwill Drive as well as the Sadie Hawkins Day festivities in the spring.

Under the leadership of Ky Koch, elections chairman, the Senior Class steering committee met during the summer to revise the Student Handbook, printed for the benefit of new students and sophomores.

For convenience all representatives to the council were placed in the same homeroom; Mr. Frank Black was homeroom teacher as well as Student Council adviser.

And City

The Senate, a branch of student government composed of elected homeroom representatives, sponsored the Homecoming "Octopus' Garden" dance. They were also in charge of the profitable Christmas Cheer drive, when homerooms collected food, clothing, toys, and money for underprivileged families in Clearwater. Collecting clothes for Goodwill and money for the AFS drive were also duties led by these homeroom representatives.

"Only Then Can There Be Peace"

Eduardo Prias and his new 'brother' Ed Dangler discover Ecuador isn't really so far away.

American Field Service exchange students this year were Nuong Tran, South Vietnam, and Eduardo Prias, Ecuador. The AFS club helped make them feel at home. A Christmas card sale, a car wash, a first place homecoming car, and a workshop sponsored by AFS International rounded out an active year. Two assemblies were held. At one, Paula Putzek, American Abroad to Austria, spoke of her trip. At the January assembly, exchange students held a panel discussion. The program also kicked off the annual AFS Fund Drive, which enables CHS to host next year's students and to perpetuate the purpose of their motto: "Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the earth. Then, and only then, can there be peace."

Members of Masque and Gavel worked approximately 25,000 man-hours in each dramatic production. Coach Phillip Morron, who teaches speech and drama devoted much time to the school productions. M and G was involved in three major productions and participated in a local drama festival. Besides acting in the plays, members also worked on technical, make-up and electrical crews for "Carousel."

Keyettes Involved In

At 6:00 a.m. one autumn morning, fifty sleepy girls were driving all over Clearwater. Actually, they were not DWI but were heading for the Keyette Kidnap which was a part of the surprise initiation for the Keyette Club. Directing the club's activities for the year were Mrs. Ruby Lewis and Mrs. Elizabeth Ransom. The year's agenda included giving Halloween candy to children in the hospital, collecting money for the Muscular Dystrophy drive, the most collected in Pinellas County, visiting the elderly in the county home, sponsoring a Road Rallye, holding a bake sale and sponsoring a charity dance.

Key Club Opened Doors Of Progress

Key Club members well fulfilled their motto: "We Build." With a membership of more than 45 boys, Key Club served its school and community in various projects. Members enacted their annual projects as well as many new efforts. Yearly projects included the March of Dimes Drive; the Kiwanis "Take It Away Day," when the boys picked up rummage for Goodwill; and Operation Santa Claus when Key Club members helped park cars. Advised by Mr. Ivan Werkhiser, the boys sponsored an orphan and sent Christmas gifts to him and also to needy children in Clearwater. This year marked the first time Key Club boys were elected by fellow members to be pictured with the Calendar Girls in the Key Club calendar.

In the spring, the club volunteered to put on a program about the dangers of narcotics. The presentation was made at area junior high schools.

Betas Become Jaycee — Juniorettes

For the first time in the history of CHS a club name was changed. The Jaycee-Juniorettes, formerly Beta Tri-Hi-Y, are now affiliated with the Jaycettes of Clearwater. The club placed extra emphasis this year on service projects as exemplified in their projects. At Thanksgiving, the girls held a powder puff basketball game against Largo. Admission price was a can of food; afterward proceeds were donated to a needy family in the city. The club also decorated Morton Plant Hospital during the Christmas season.

Tri-Hi-Y Tried Helping Others

Female basketball players, members of Tri-Hi-Y chapters of CHS and LHS, attracted a gymful of attention at a powder-puff basketball game held in the fall. Each can of food, price of admission, went into a Thanksgiving basket donated to needy Clearwater families. At the annual Easter Egg Hunt for underprivileged children, Peter Rabbit made an appearance. For the first time, the Alpha Club meeting moved off campus to the YMCA, entitling the girls the use of Y facilities for club activities. Two members represented Tri-H-Y at the Hi-Y Leadership Conference at Blue Ridge, North Carolina last summer, and seven delegates participated in the State YMCA Youth Legislature.

NFL Took Top Honors

The Clearwater High School Speech Department promotes membership in two forensic associations; the National Forensic League, in which speakers earn points for membership and advanced degrees, and Florida Forensics, the state program sponsored by the University of South Florida.

The variety of activities such as debate, extemporaneous speaking, interpretation, and original oratory provided an opportunity to suit each student. Taking trips to other schools and hosting one home tournament each year provide the challenge of interscholastic competition. The first time C.H.S. participated in the University of Florida Invitational Tournament, Norman Gundel and Warren Wilson won second place in the switch-sides division and Warren was the winner of the Best-Speaker-of-the-Tournament award.

The state tournament of Florida Forensic was held at the University of South Florida, February 26-28. The state meet of National Forensic League was hosted by Miami Beach High School, March 19-21.

French Club's Arc Triumphed

In contributing to the spirit of Homecoming, Les Esprits Gravis constructed a float depicting the Arc de Triomphe. Three members dressed like football players and devils rode on the float. With the money saved from last year's projects, the club bought a two-speaker stereo record player, which made its debut at the French Club Christmas party. Initiation for almost thirty members was held at daybreak at Philippe Park in January. After breakfast, new members received boxes of donuts to sell. Everyone celebrated the closing of the French Club year at a French Club banquet.

A splash party to entertain potential as well as old members started another year for the Latin Club. Inter Nos received first place for their skit at Tornado Tales, thus, the club has placed for five consecutive years. Members shared the holiday spirit at a Latin Club Christmas Party. Other activities included attending, on February 14, the District Latin Forum where three other counties were represented, and participating at the State Latin Forum from April 10-11 in Jacksonville. The traditional Roman Banquet ended the year. Old members dressed in Roman attire and initiated new members by auctioning them off as slaves.

Entering a "rosy" car in the homecoming parade and having a breakfast once every six weeks at Robby's Pancake House were among the projects fulfilled by FBLA. The Future Business Leaders of America, under the advisership of Mrs. Sandra Cullen and Miss Clegg Miller, also took several field trips. They attended a district meeting in February at Webber College in Babson Park, and a state convention during the spring at Jacksonville.

Para Med Club Took New Name

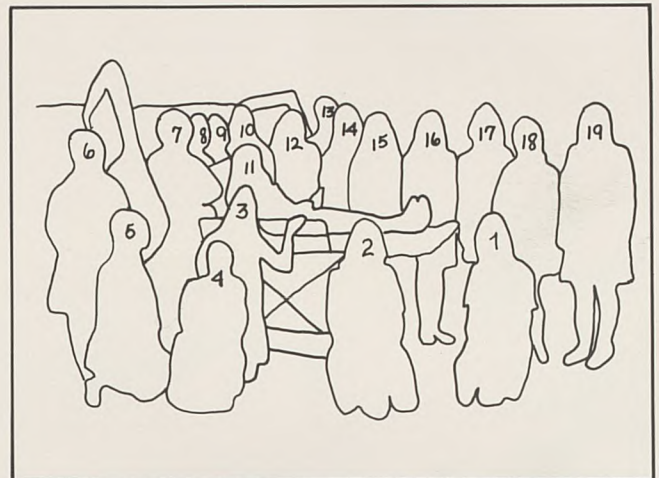

Under the new name of the Health-Careers Club, the Para Med Club learned new medical skills by going on field trips and listening to guest speakers. At the beginning of the year the future nurses and doctors traveled to the district convention in Sarasota. Field trips in the fall included trips to the Medical Center in Gainesville and Morton F. Plant Hospital in Clearwater. In the spring members visited a general practitioner's office. Speakers for the meetings included a physical therapist, and inhalation therapist and a psychiatrist.

Money-making projects included a car wash and a donut sale. The club also had had a skating party.

End of the year activities consisted of the state convention in Daytona Beach and a Lemon-Aide banquet. The Lemon-Aides, members of the Health-Careers Club, had a banquet given in their honor by the Community Hospital in May for their service to the hospital.

FHA Built For Progress

In carrying out the theme "To Dare is to Care," the Future Homemakers of America sponsored monthly projects concerned with the home, Stable Life; Our World—A Growing Heritage; and Make Time Work for You. FHA girls planned social activities, such as their annual Christmas party and effected their housing projects at monthly meetings. Also, under the supervision of Mrs. Mattie Mae Saunders and Mrs. Zylphia Lewis, they visited a nursing home and a day-care center for children.

Counceled by Miss Daphine Cross, the Inter-Club Council continued to carry out school spirit and community fellowship. Their first project included a donut sale, followed later by a Halloween party, thrown for their enjoyment. For Homecoming they decorated their car for the parade. During the Christmas holidays, ICYC members caroled door-to-door, they received many donations of food, toys, and clothing to be sent to the local needy family the club was sponsoring.

Sea Students Explored Beaches

Almost every Saturday the Marine Biology Club could be seen along the local beaches, where the students were gathering marine life for their club's collection. Organized for the students interested in careers in oceanography, marine biology, or simply for those students who enjoy marine biology, the Marine Biology Club planned several field trips. Under the advisership of Mr. Robert Gliha, the members travelled to the shark research center in Sarasota.

Library Club Booked Up Year

Keeping the new library decorated for each holiday and selling pep ribbons to boost school spirit were only two of the Library Club's service projects this year. Led by senior Harvey Bauman, the club also participated in school activities by decorating a car for the Homecoming parade and by inviting the exchange students to lecture at one of their meetings. As their last project the club sold paperback and hard-cover books at their annual book sale in the library.

Boosterettes Catered To Football

As always the vivacious Boosterettes played a significant part in the football scene. In spite of all the excitement, they faithfully and conveniently brought popcorn and cokes directly to the crowds. The Boosterettes also undertook many projects. These selected sophomore girls, led by Miss JoAnn Tilley, entered a Boosterette car in the Homecoming Parade and represented CHS by selling cokes and snacks in the Fun and Sun Parade.

Debbie Gibson and Diane Lister say "Popcorn, peanuts or us."

Pep Club Radiated Whirlwinds Of Spirits

Under the proud Tornado warning flag and the leadership of the whirling dervish, the Senior Pep Club boosted spirit. Biff Welben of the class of '70 disguised as the Arabian whirling dervish acted as school mascot at football games. Waving his scimitor he helped the cheerleaders lead cheers. The Pep Club also sponsored buses and caravans to the away football games. The only requirements to join being a senior and attending 50% of all athletic events.

Humanitarians Set Up Displays

To become acquainted with art in the community was the chief aim of the humanities club this year. Making attractive displays in the lobby of the media center kept the members busy year round. Before Christmas Les Fauves Avanti, sponsored by Mrs. Mason, attended the Gulf Coast Art Center and traveled to the Ringling Art Museum in Sarasota in the spring.

Fathoms Sounded CHS Creativity

After the trials of first semester were over, the English teachers were faced with the trial of selecting the students who were to serve on the staff of Fathoms, CHS's creative arts magazine. The chosen ten worked all second semester selecting for the magazine poems, haiku, essays, short stories, contributed by the student body. Three others on the staff, Nancy Hopkins, Pat Lee, and Wendy Moran, worked solely on production. Mrs. Blewitt and a committee of art students picked the art efforts. Fathoms was sold in May.

Why all of a sudden is everyone looking so busy?

Barbara Schreiner explains to newcomer John Schaub the importance of meeting deadlines.

Staff Covered

With the intention that the 1970 Aqua Clara was going to be the greatest ever, several staff members visited last summer the U of F in Gainesville where a year's worth of skills were packed into one short beneficial week. Although the majority of the staff was inexperienced, their eagerness to learn made mastering skills easier.

Bigger and better things happened to the Aqua Clara this year—like more pages and more color shots. A large staff of 30 helped review the 69-70 school year more accurately. The staff also took complete charge of the task of selling and distributing underclassmen pictures. Pressured by deadlines and the theory that if something can go wrong it will, the staff created a reflection of memories at the turn of a decade.

Splits Up

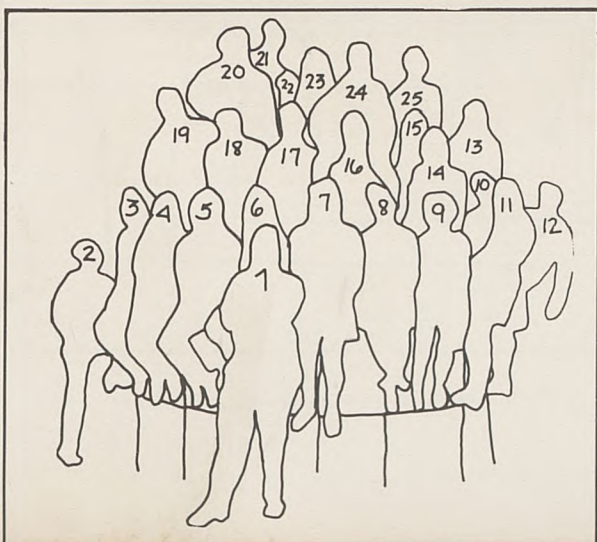

For the first time the Clearlight employed two separate staffs—one an advertising staff that was not required to write stories. This staff relieved the rest of the writing staff from the burden of trying to sell ads so they could have more time to devote to writing better stories. Clearlight reporters covered a variety of subjects from football games and pop festivals to movie reviews and yacht races. FSPA activities at USF and Daytona Beach were fun and informative. The Clearlight was proud of the awards won at the annual Clearwater Sun banquet.

Students taking Diversified Cooperative Training besides working at least twenty hours as auto mechanics, air conditioning technicians, draftsmen, dental and doctor's and in TV and boat repairs, had an active club year. They attended the district meeting and the district contest. D.C.T. students also hosted the C.E.C. convention held at the Fort Harrison. The club not only celebrated the Christmas season with a party, but presented a gift to Mrs. Shirley Walker, a former D.C.T. student, victimized by hurricane Camille. The annual employer-employee banquet concluded an eventful year.

Because of the numbers of students enrolled in the Distributive Education program, the club was divided into two groups. The two divisions, one sponsored by Mrs. Jacqueline Brumfield and the other by Mrs. Ruth Pope, met in different classrooms, but worked together in their activities. For the first time, the DE club set up a practice store for their own use in the DE room. As a service project, members collected toys to send to families during the Christmas season. They also had breakfast at a local restaurant every six weeks. A local DE convention took place in St. Petersburg in the fall, and the annual state convention was held in Jacksonville in March.

Its Highlights . . .

The Crimson and Gray Band planned for a major trip in the spring to the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Virginia. The itinerary for the week's journey also included a visit to Williamsburg, Va. and Washington, D. C. This year the band participated in the district marching and concert contests; moreover, they played in the Fun 'n Sun Parade in Clearwater and in the Gasparilla Parade in Tampa. Operation Santa Claus, an annual concert held in the CHS auditorium, highlighted the concert season. Proceeds from this event were donated to the Salvation Army. After Tag Day, the band held a Thank You Concert to thank contributors for their donations. Mr. Stephen Yanetovich, who directs the Tornado Band also directs the swing band and the orchestra.

Led by flag captains Laurie Hammock and Wendy Jasper and majorette captains Shannon Reid and Cookie Smith, these girls practiced endless hours after school. Both groups received new uniforms, all styled the same. Besides performing at football games, the girls aided by Mrs. Henry Jasper, also twirled at concerts and parades.

Let Us Entertain You

As they have traditionally done, the choir sang at both the Christmas and Thanksgiving assemblies. This time the choir gave students a preview of songs from the Broadway musical Carousel, which the vocal music department presented later in the year. Besides singing for school events several different choruses from the vocal music department sang for University of South Florida civic groups and at charity events. The Crimsonaires, a specially selected chorus, made their television debut this year, thus climaxing an eventful year for the whole vocal music department.

PCC And District Crown Clinched

With a stupendous 10-0-0 season, the proud CHS Tornado football team, rated third in the state, trekked to Tampa stadium to meet Brandon to vie for the regional crown. Although the team lost the game, Richard Ast (better known to CHSers as Elwood Aust) almost succeeded in breaking a county punting record. Under the supervision of the coaches and captains Randy Hooper, Gary Moore, Joel Parker, and Lloyd Rhodes, the undefeated team also clinched the PCC crown and the District 6AA title.

JV Downed On Field, Not In Ranks

Long, fatiguing practices almost everyday after school during football season may have been only barely endured by the JV boys. Daily, the Baby Tornadoes put up with hard knocks from the Varsity Squad as the two practiced jointly. But these practices proved worthwhile. The Junior Varsity won all but one of their games, losing to Largo 24-6. Coach Jon Nelis gave the boys pointers and supervised their practices and games.

JVs Kept The Pep

At every Junior Varsity home football and basketball game, the JV Cheerleaders enthusiastically yelled their team on to victory. Besides cheering on the JVers, they boosted Varsity spirit as they cheered from the bench. During lunch hours, they conducted pep assemblies to instigate spirit for the game that night. The eight sophomores, coached by Mrs. Merle McCracken, were selected in the fall.

Cheerleaders Boosted CHS Spirit

As always the 69-70 cheerleaders had the traditional qualities of spirit and enthusiasm. But this year an extra special peppiness was present. Behind the Tornadoes, in victory or defeat, the six juniors and four seniors sparkled with enthusiasm and devotion. Under the supervision of advisor Martha Smith, for the football season, Betty Ann Nichols and June Alexander held the reigns. During basketball, Susan McCracken and Karen Cohen boosted spirit for the Mighty Tornadoes.

Usherettes Headed 'Em Up And Moved 'Em Out

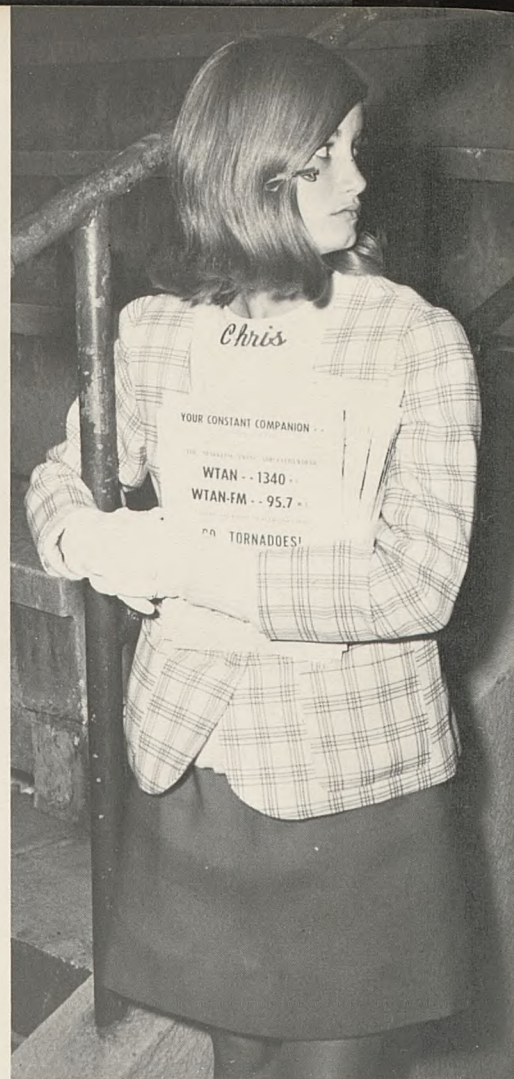

The sixteen girls who always managed to wear the same style red and white plaid suits on color day did not do so coincidentally. These spirited Usherettes, sporting new uniforms, ushered at all home football and basketball games, and at after school activities like school plays and band concerts. Leading the Usherettes for football was Jane Hutchinson. Julie Smitherman was captain for basketball. Faithfully at 4:00 each Friday morning during football season, these girls arose to decorate every varsity football player's house. Then punctually at 6:00 a.m. they arrived at the school to plaster the walls with signs and to decorate victory hall. After school they wrapped the chartreuse goal posts with streams of red and grey crepe paper. Other activities included sponsoring a donut sale, participating in a prize-winning Tornado tale, and selling animal balloons at the Homecoming game. Sue Gause and Pat Tendl were elected to the Homecoming Court. In May, nine seniors and seven juniors were elected by the student body to serve as next year's Usherettes.

Thrills, Chills, 'n Drills

CHS started another tradition this year with the addition of a marching drill team, the Tornadoettes. The first girl precision drill squad in CHS history consisted of forty school-spirited girls sponsored by Mrs. Connie Steele. Much time and a great deal of effort were necessary requirements. The girls practiced at least 12 hours a week so that they could display their precision at half-time shows. Each girl was required to make her own red and white uniforms. Money-making projects to help defray the uniform costs included selling rugs for stadium seat cushions and sponsoring a bake sale.

The Tornadoettes keep in step.

Tall Tornadoes No. 1 . . .

Even though the CHS basketball team had only one returning letterman, the Varsity basketball team had an exceptionally good season. Out of 22 games, they won all but two, losing to Gibbs and Dunedin. During several games, for example, when the Tornadoes played the Gibbs Gladiators, after having been beaten by them once, the gym was packed to capacity and many unfortunates had to be turned away. The CHS team composed of 5 seniors, 3 juniors and 3 sophomores, competed against the Northeast for the tournament championship. Although they lost the district tournament the team secured the number one position in the PCC. At the Christmas tournament Joel Parker was named most valuable player.

JVs: Princes Of Crimson Court

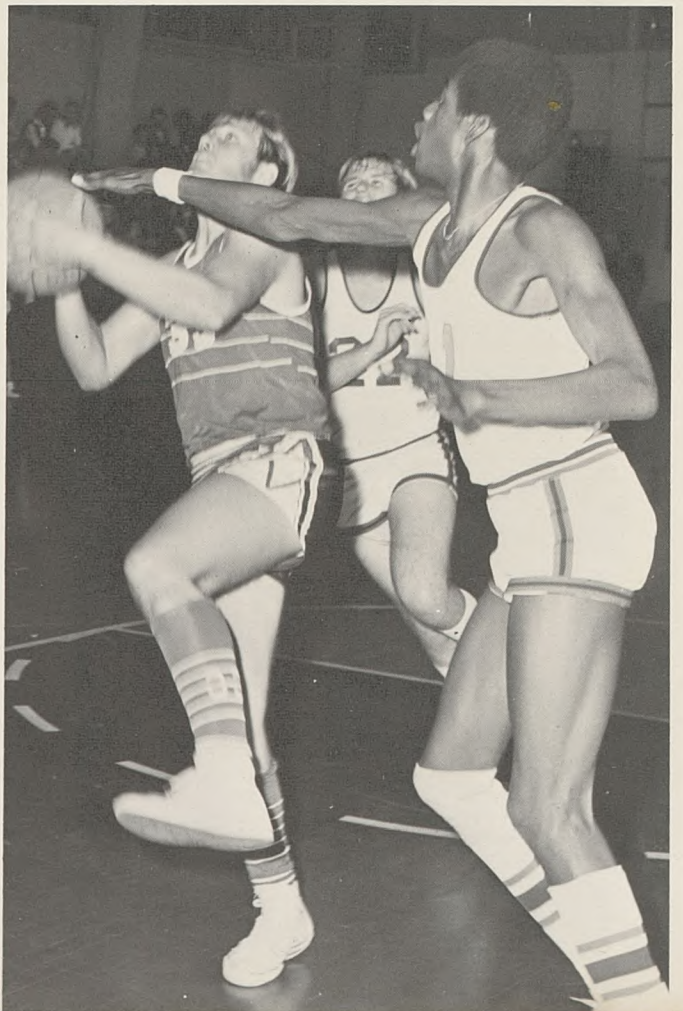

Under the coaching of Jon Nelis, the Baby Tornadoes won 12 big games this year. Though they suffered only 8 defeats, the junior varsity team showed many promising hopefuls. Sophomores such as, guard Paul Gellup, center Aarron Giese, Glenn Sever, and Bob Mitchell gained needed experience that will help towards forming a succesful varsity team next year.

The Tornado Tracksters again ran high in the PCC ranks. Under the direction of coaches Ed Wells and Chris Seeger, the entire squad, including the cross country team, practiced many long hours before and after school. Along with several returning lettermen, some newcomers to the track and field events turned in exceptional performances.

Tennis Was Some Racket

Marty Smith says: "I'll get it! . . . I think!"

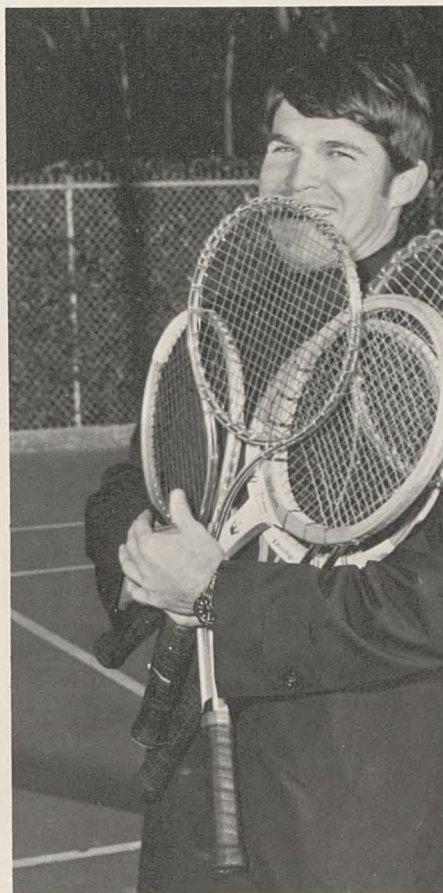

Margaret Sinclair thwacks back a strong serve.

According to Coach Norman Weaver, this year's tennis teams really had "team spirit." As his first year coaching the CHS tennis team, Coach Weaver said he really enjoyed coaching the boys and girls.

The girls' team played in 11 matches, 8 home and 3 away. The girls' season promised to be as outstanding as last year's with a team consisting of experienced players. The girls had 3 returning letter-winners; Margaret Sinclair (Sr.), Ruth Faison (Sr.) and Peggy Thacker (Jr.). Ruth Faison and Peggy Thacker served as co-captain and sophomores Marcia Redd and Marty Smith were the top players.

The boys' team also had 11 matches; 6 home and 5 away. Co-captains and top players, Bill Callahan and Steve Burdick, led the team to many victories. Returning lettermen were Bill Rogers (Sr.), Steve Burdick (Sr.) Steve Albrecht (Jr.) and Andy Dahlquist (Jr.).

What Had 18 Legs And Caught Flies?

Bolstered by returning lettermen, Mike Conto, Joe Haney, Bill Mitchell, Gary Moore, Gordon Sheppard, Steve Skinner, Wally Tyson and Barry Ward, the CHS baseball team scored another winning season. The baseball boys practiced everyday after school at Green Field under the guidance of Coach Sal Gaiter. With the captainship of seniors Bill Mitchell and Gary Moore and with powerful hitting, the team was destined for a place among the county ranks.

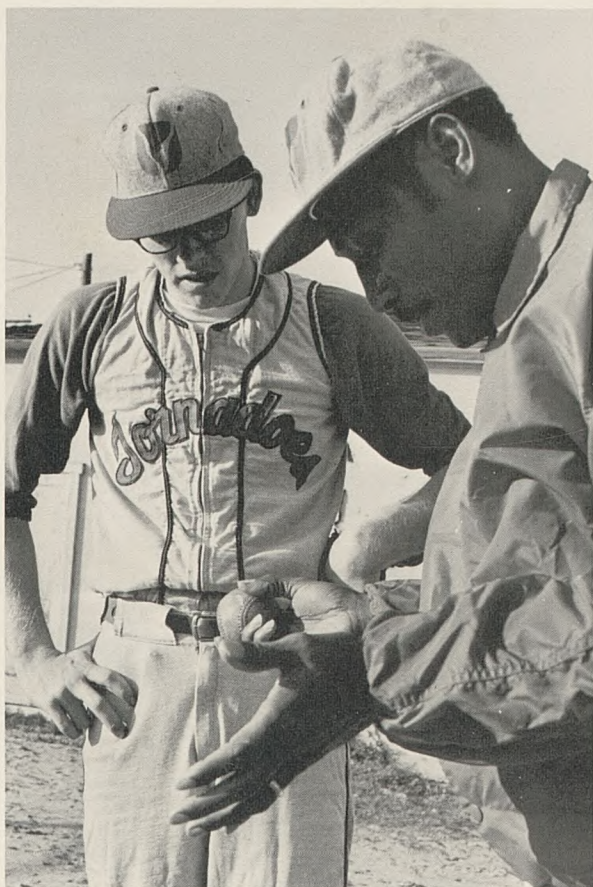

Steve Skinner strokes out a single.

CHS Swimmers

Under the second year leadership of Coach Bill Bostain, the boys' swimming team opened their season with a victory over Seminole. In pre-conference competition at the Leto Invitational Swim Meet at USF, senior Craig Robinson established two new meet records. Captain Paul Smith, promoted the team's competitive spirit while returning lettermen, David Walker, Mark Gruber, Alan Snider, Bob Rice, and John Schaub, continued to strengthen the team. Sophomore swimmers developed valuable skills during their first year at CHS.

Tornadoes Took Tanksuit Tans

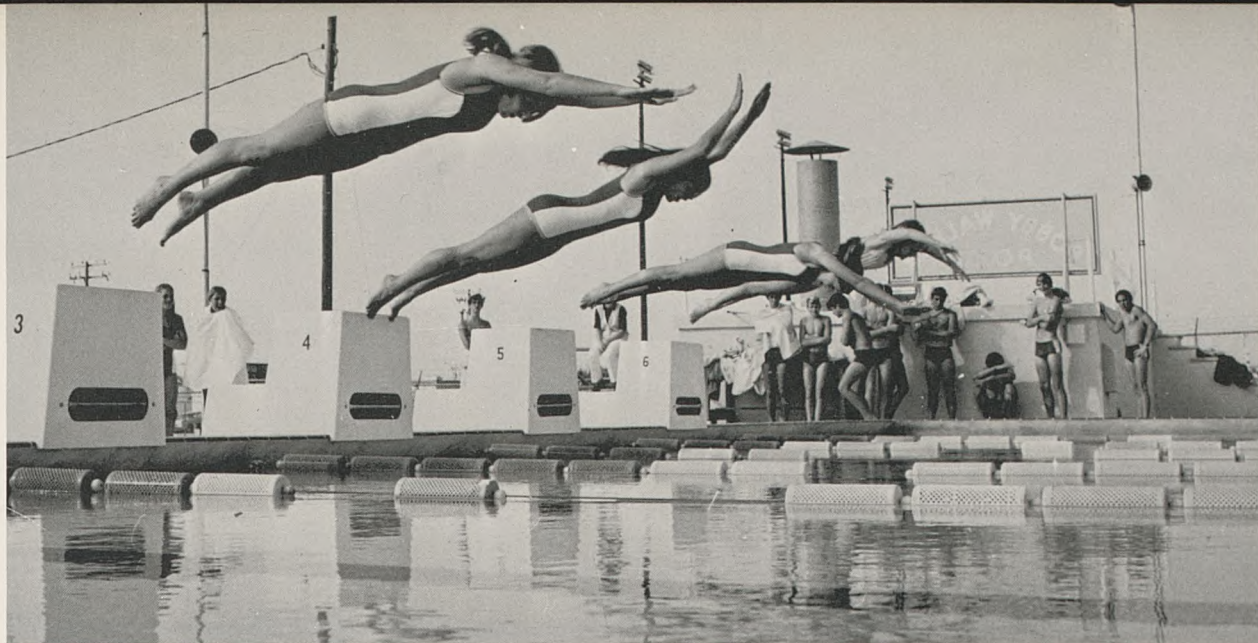

The girls swim team started practicing in January under Bill Bostain, who just this year began coaching both the boys' and girls' teams. Captain Jane Albertson and co-captain Courtney Flamer inspired their teammates on to victory. Sophomores, Kendall Flammer, Looty Walker, and Stephanie Wood added team strength. Shivering cold practices in 40 degree weather proved worth it as the female Tornado tankers swam out an admirable season.

Wrestlers Had A Gripping Season

The Clearwater wrestlers, in their second season, surprised many fans again this year. The team finished with a 5-5 record, remarkably good for a still new sport at CHS. Under the leadership of Coach Steve Goldman, CHS placed fifth in the Seminole Invitation, al, where some other state's best wrestlers competed. Captain Jim Goulah showed to be really tough finishing with a 14-2 season. Clearwater had a good season this year and looks for a even better one next year, with many of the boys returning as letterman.

ADVERTISERS

(right) Join the round-up of bargains at Town and Country, pardners. While Chris Di Muzio, Terry Lipford, and Carol Smart rest on the ol' hitchin' post, many smart shoppers are inside gazin' on that delishus beef and lushus fruit. If you've got any hongry critters around, stop at Town and Country, 1620 Gulf-to-Bay.

(left) Carla Hunzinger, Debbie Johnson, and Beth Lendrum admire the handicrafts available to make at the Spinning Wheel, 1676 Drew Street. The yarn barrels behind the girls are full of colorful wool for making sweaters, beanies, slippers, and even dresses, like the one Linda wears. A large selection of needlepoint pillows, purses, and chair covers are also available. Visit the Spinning Wheel soon for unique and creative gift ideas.

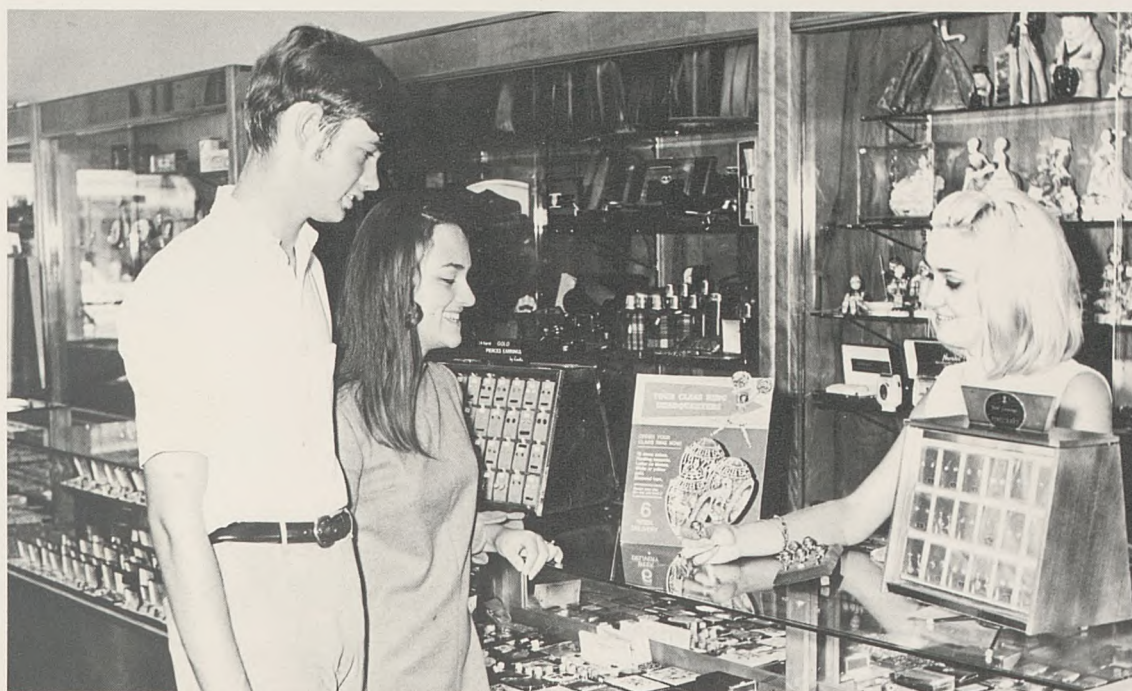

(right) For the talented and the not-so-talented, The House of Hobbies, 1110 South Ft. Harrison, provides a large assortment of art and hobby supplies, from paint equipment to do-it-yourself kits. Warren Wilson and Sue Stemm find that doing their own thing in the hobby world can be fun.

(left) Estate Jewelers, 528 Cleveland Street, offers a fine selection of antique jewelry and up-to-date bracelets, pins, and earrings. Mary Jane Benson and Harold Valentine are interested in the lovely diamond watches Mr. Charles Guthrie is showing them. And obviously, the price is right. For that special gift for that special someone, visit Estate Jewelers.

(left) Four exhausted seniors, Mark Davis, Sally Brott, Becky Harmon, and Chuck Brinkman take time out from their labors on the Senior Homecoming float to visit Davis Paint Company. DPI has all the paints and supplies a float committee could use. So next time your committee is float building or you're doing a little painting, stop by Davis Paint Company, 532 South Missouri Avenue.

(above) Shirley Renaud and Loren Buckley seem pleased with the class rings from Trickels Jewelry store, 625 Cleveland Street. Trickels offers various stones for your class rings and prompt delivery. They also have a wide variety of pins, necklaces, rings and bridal silver. So whether it's a birthday, wedding, or just 'no reason' present, you'll find that special something at Trickels.

(right) Like to fill in a vacancy? Then join Linda Urban, Patty Eckert, Peggy Starr, and Theresa Turner at Schrafft's Restaurant, overlooking Clearwater Bay. Delicious food and a delightful atmosphere await you when you dine at Schrafft's. An excellent staff anticipates your every wish. Next time you have an opportunity to dine out, try Schrafft's Restaurant at 200 Osceola, Drew Street.

(right) Are Brenda Brown and Walter Jones eloping? Is Dale Haydon helping them? Or has Walter just ordered Dale to hand over the keys to the car? No matter what the reason, Brenda and Walter know they'll travel in style in a car from Crown Motors. If you've got any big plans in the future, drop by Crown Motors, at 1106 Cleveland Street, and you'll really travel!

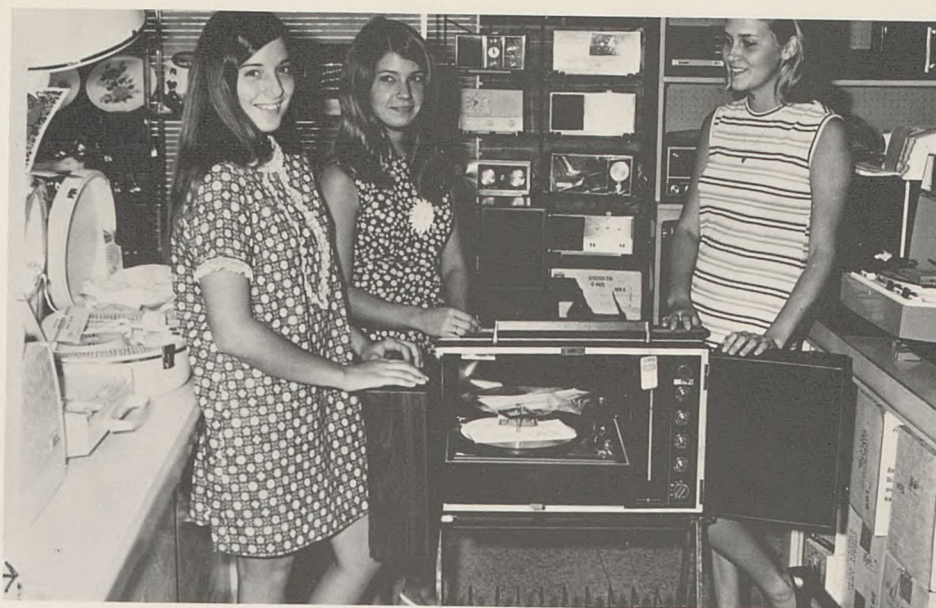

(below) Want to get away from it all? Then spend a leisurely weekend at the Riviera Motel-Apartments, 217 Coronado Drive, on Sparklin' Clearwater Beach. The Riviera is just a step away from fishing boats, the Gulf and its own swimming pool. After their swim, Don and Brent Armstrong may have lunch at the Riviera's restaurant or do a little girl watching around the pool.

(right) Conscious of the latest in hair styles, Marilyn Frank has just visited Maryanne's Hair Styling Salon, 1868 Drew Street. Her hairdo, fashioned by Joyce, is just right for her upcoming weekend date. Maryanne's also specializes in wigs, falls, and hair pieces. For exciting ideas in hair beauty, make your appointment today. A large staff of certified beauticians awaits you.

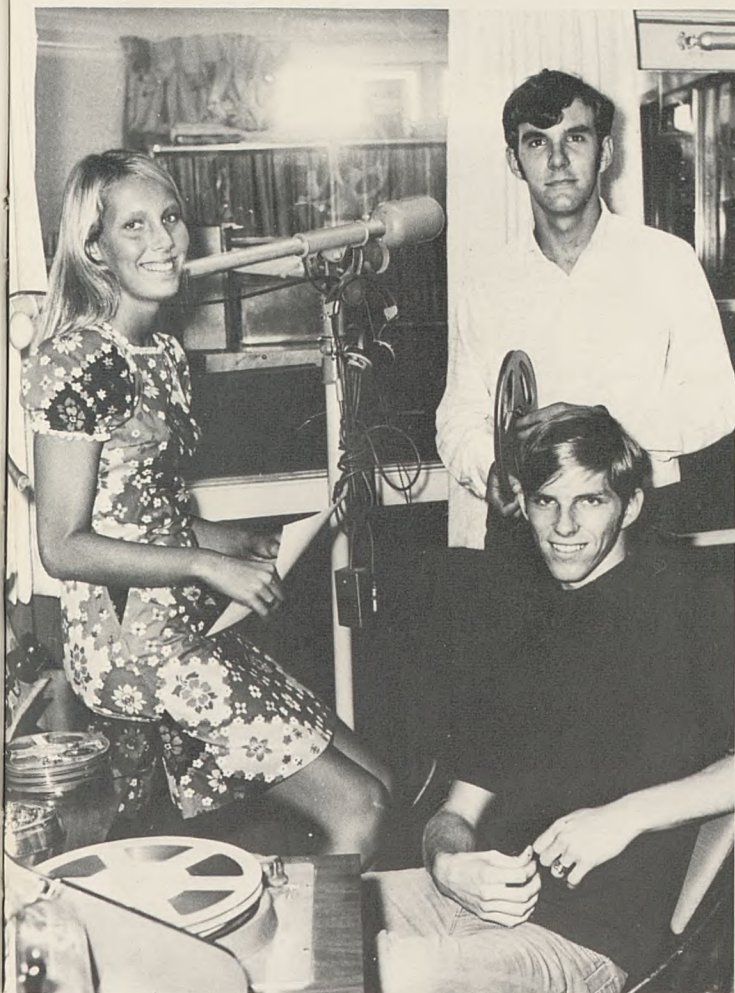

(right) "Turn on" at Gulf Coast Discount House, the appliance paradise of Clearwater. Carol Barry, Carleen Elmlinger and Peggy Hampton realize they're on the right circuit for an 'electric zoo' of their own. They're glad they've made the 'switch' to Gulf Coast Discount House, 1800 Drew Street. Get in the groove with a new stereo, hairdryer, or tape player from Gulf Coast Discount House.

(above) When spring and summer fever set in and all your friends are out in their boats ... don't despair. International Water Sports, 235 Windward Passage, rents and sells all types of boats. If you prefer to ski, like Sue Gause and Mary Gerlach, IWS rents everything you need. Don't sit on the beach and envy your friends—join 'em!

(left) Attention! ... An important bulletin from WTAN! Jane Albertson, Paul Phillips, and Rick Moon are attempting to infiltrate the lines of one of Clearwater's top radio stations. WTAN maintains top coverage on Clearwater High sports, national news and weather. For your enjoyable listening pleasure, tune to 1340.

"Silk, satin, calico." Which shall it be? Pat Henningsen and Myra Hickman simply can't decide from the marvelous selection of fabrics, patterns, and trimmings offered at Gil-Mar Fabrics, at Searstown Shopping Center. That special event is coming up soon. "Shall we get wool, suedecloth, dacron and cotton, or a polyester doubleknit?" Decisions, decisions. Let Gil-Mar Fabrics help you solve all your wardrobe problems.

(right) The sun is beating down—You're lying on a sun-parched beach—You need a cold drink—Where do you go—? To the Pier Pavilion, of course! Jim Alexander and Rich Hice are vying for the attentions of Chris Kiehl, who after a day on the beach, is in need of an ice cold coke, a hamburger, and french fries, with perhaps a milk shake for dessert. The Pier Pavilion is located on Sparkling Clearwater Beach off Highway 60.

(above) Does this look like a scene from a typical Largo farm? Well, maybe. But Barbara Roberts, Judy Brooking, and Debbie Kitto will assure you that it's not. Actually it's Brooking Ford Tractor Company, located at 1410 South Fort Harrison. For new and used tractors or tractor service, go to Brooking Ford.

(left) Longing for that old-fashioned, home-cooked, good food? Take a tip from Sue Herring and Karol Aldrich and head toward Nino's Restaurant, corner of Park Street and Garden Avenue. Nino's specializes in Italian-American cuisine, and has the best spaghetti ever. The quiet, relaxing surroundings shut you out from the world and its problems while providing a delightful meal. Why not drop in at Nino's? Hours are 8:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.

(left) "We carpet anything" Could it be that Jo Ann Bianco is about to carpet her friends, Greg Berry and Ed Dangler? Or is she going to help herself to a beautifully colored rug for her bedroom? There's everything from shag to rag carpets including deep plush piles with all types of prints and color combinations. Romine's Carpets, 528 Missouri Avenue, will do a quality job on all "non-living" objects.

(right) Flash ... Nacols Jewelers, located in the Sunshine Mall, isn't really being robbed by 'Murder' Mijares and 'Gabby' Gause. Poor defenseless Cathy Gasper would be proud to display Nacols' choice line of the latest adornments, if they would only put those guns away!

(left) What do we have here? Alan Schaeperklaus, Shannon Reed, Sherry Hagaman, and Pete Kerwin relaxing after a tasty meal at the thrift and swift capitol of the world, Sandy's Thrift and Swift, located at 201 South Missouri Avenue. If you like quick service and good food, visit the home of the plaid beret—Sandy's.

(right) "On the good ship Lollipop, it's a sweet trip to the candy shop ..." Ann Wyatt and Jackie Greene seem to agree that Griffin's Candy Shoppe is even better than the fabled Lollipop Ship. Besides the delicious old-fashioned chocolates and other candies, Griffin's carries cards and candy boxes. So when your sweet tooth speaks, answer it with a treat from Griffin's Candy Shoppe, at the Sunshine Mall.

(right) Sue Whitehurst and Ceann Lane know just where to go for their boots and bags. Peltz's Shoes, located at 17 South Fort Harrison Avenue, carries a wide selection of shoes and purses, styles and colors to suit any of your fashion needs. Peltz has top quality shoes with prices that are kind to your budget.

(above) Modeling the latest in fashions are Frank's teen board members Nancy Olson, June Alexander, Betty Ann Nichols, and Polly Erwin. They know that the place to go for clothes is Frank's, 635 Cleveland Street. Frank's ladies department carries clothes, jewelry, scarves, and handbags to fit any young lady's needs. And the men's department has the latest in fashions for all high school boys.

(above) Who wouldn't be smiling after receiving flowers from Sweat's Flower Shop, located at 1200 South Fort Harrison. Daisies won't tell, but Nancy Hopkins and Jim Campbell will. "Flowers from Sweat's are just right for any occasion," they say. Sweat's offers a free delivery service. And remember—mum's the word!

(left) Beverly Clark and Julie Jamerson browse through the wide variety of books found at Sandy's Book Store, 530 Drew Street. The selection includes all types of books for your reading pleasure, such as; cook books, hobby books, paperbacks, and current best sellers. Sandy's also has a great selection of stationery, novelty gifts, all-occasion cards, and party supplies.

(left) For the 'in' as well as the conventional in young men's wear, Short's Trad provides fine brand names in shirts, jackets, slacks, and ties. Dave McLarin is showing John Winston some of the newest trends in men's apparel. Remember—for a quality wardrobe, see Short's Trad Shop, 512 Cleveland Street.

(above) These happy kiddies are selecting their foot apparel from Rophies' Shoe Store, located at 522 Cleveland Street, downtown Clearwater. Alan Rophie can't help but make a sale to Cheryl Rophie and Cathy Collins. Sandals, loafers, boots, and school shoes are all of the latest styles and finest quality. (Cheryl, don't forget your free Buster Brown balloon you get with each pair of shoes!)

(left) While passing by Canner's Jewelers, 518 Park Street, Cathy Shelor was drawn to the window by the display of antique rings and pines. "Mike, just look at the beautiful diamonds and jades and opals." But Mike Conto will probably settle for a bracelet or watch today. "And Mike, look at the topaz and garnets and rubies .."

(left) Even the chemistry students of CHS couldn't make a pill this big! It takes an expert pharmacist at Greenwood Pharmacy to get results like this. George Western tries to convince Molly Carter and Mary Brown that Greenwood medicines are groovy. For the best in pharmaceutical products, go to Greenwood Pharmacy. P.S. They also have cosmetics and cards.

(below) This year the groovin' is at Charlie Harris Pontiac, 1165 Cleveland Street. As you can see, Judy Sewell and David Kitenplon are having a hard time deciding on their breakaway car. This Bonneville is great but for the sportsters how about a speedy GTO or LeMans? Although specializing in Pontiacs, Charlie Harris will be glad to show you his fine line of quality used cars. So go "wide tracking" soon to Charlie Harris Pontiac.

(right) Someone seems to be getting a good shellacking! Luann Larsen and Sue Lehrer were supposed to be painting a wall, but they liked the color so much they decided to try it on them themselves. The mad painters are on an assignment with Mary Carter Paints, 1600 Gulf-to-Bay Boulevard. Drop in and look at the assortment of fine paint and try some yourself—on the wall please.

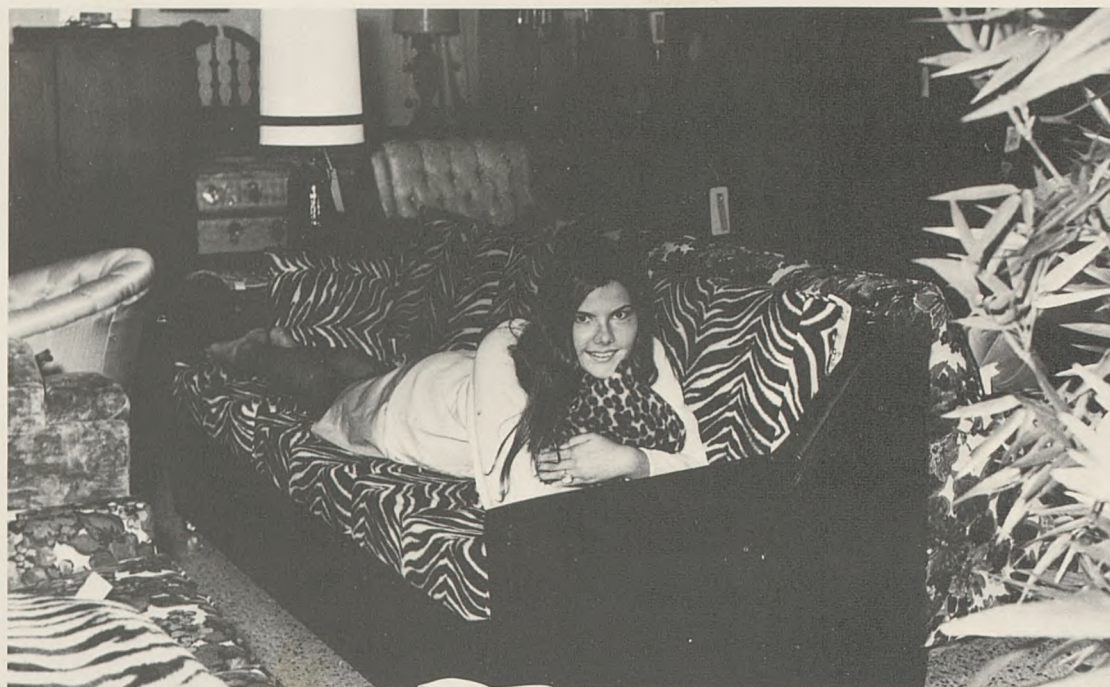

(right) Is it Cinderella and her Prince Charming with the glass slipper? No, it's Randy Hooper and Betty Ann Nichols doing shoe shopping at Jim Stewart's Shoes in the Sunshine Mall. Randy and Betty Ann know that Jim Stewart's is the place to go for the latest styles for guys and girls. Will Betty Ann be home at the stroke of midnight or will Stewart's selection of shoes keep her entranced?

(above) While exploring Imperial Hardware, in Imperial Square Shopping Center 1464 South Belcher Road, Susie Wheelis and Steve Sanders decided to take up chimney sweeping. They very easily could have decided on housekeeping, painting, plumbing, or gardening, since Imperial Hardware has the supplies for each. To make your work easier shop at Imperial Hardware and get service fit for a king.

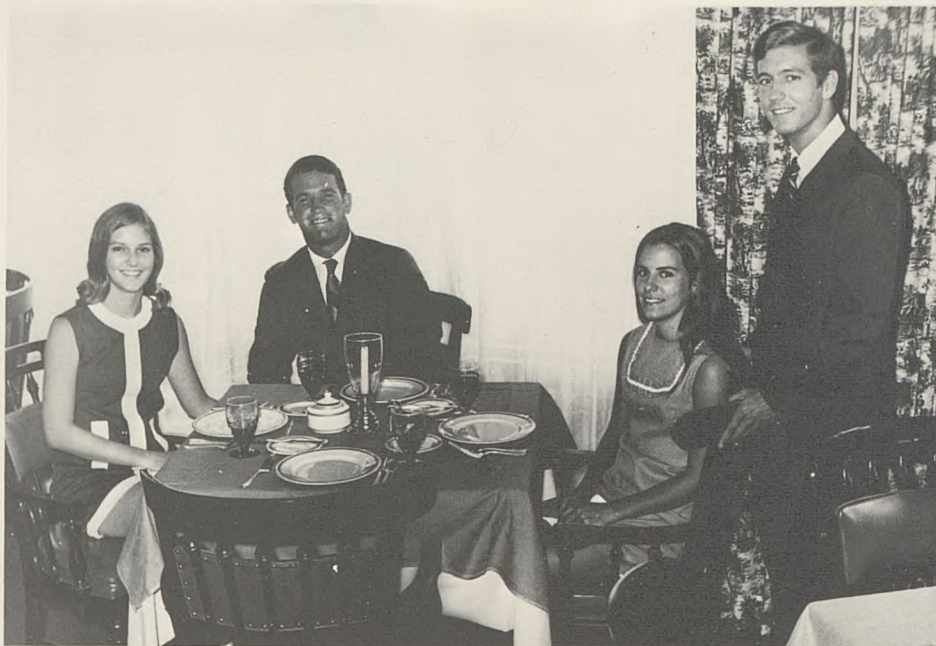

(above) Richard Vellucci isn't trying to mug Nancy Olson. He's only pointing out the wide selection of quality silver and exquisite jewelry found at Sunshine Mall. Nobel's carries fine gift ideas for both men and women. The next time you're in the Mall, stop in to see the variety of merchandise at Nobel's.

(above) Do you like to be comfortable and in style? Then take a tip from Dena Hough. Kick off your shoes and curl up on something cozy from Helmly's Furniture Store, 1928 Gulf-to-Bay Boulevard. Stop in and let Helmly's help you furnish any room in your home.

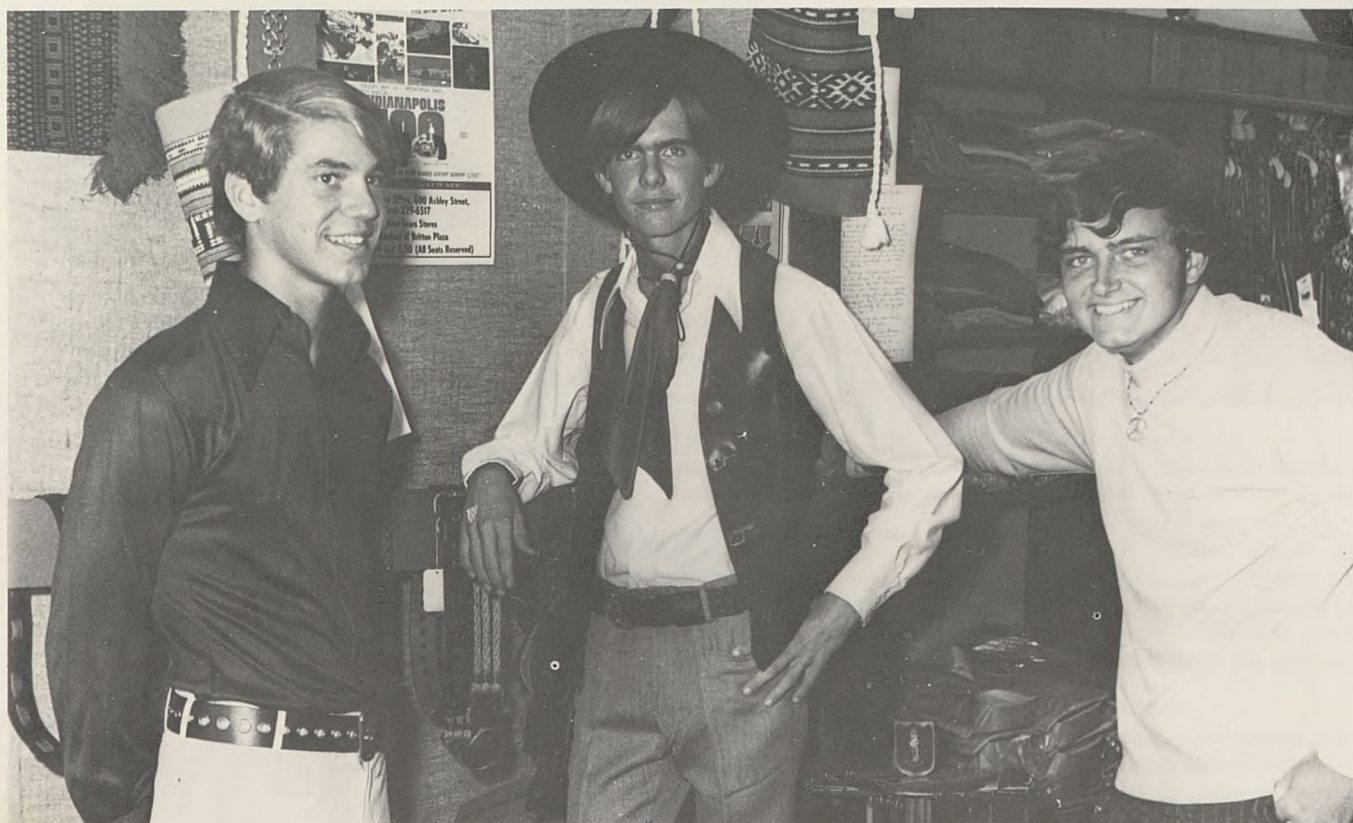

(right) Candlelight, soft music, and a lovely view of Clearwater Bay serves as the romantic setting for an intimate dinner for two young couples, Lloyd Rhodes and Jean Hooten and Robert Schnedler and Jane Kuypers at Siple's Garden Seat, 1234 Druid Road South. The delicious cuisine served daily provides the perfect touch to any dinner date. Be sure to visit the gift shop for exquisite and unique gift ideas. For those who appreciate the best in dining, Siple's Garden Seat is the place.

(left) Inspecting the work of Woody The Printer, Daryl Woodruff and Linda Sutton seem very pleased. With the latest printing machines, Woody expertly engraves invitations and announcements for any occasion. For all your personal and business printing needs contact Woody The Printer at 172 North Belcher Road.

Let Sue Amick and Margaret Kilpatrick be your guides to the best buys in town. Blanton Realty Co., with branch office at 1638 Gulf to Bay Boulevard and main office at 319 South Ft. Harrison Avenue, keeps up with the times. Serving Clearwater for 58 years, Blanton Realty sells top residential and commercial properties. Old timers depend on them; newcomers soon will.

Remember the Midnight Cowboy? Well here are the 10:30 Dudes. Mike Meadors, John Spoto, and Richard Constand check out some of the really outright bells, stovepipes, body shirts, and accessories at the Slack Scene in the Sunshine Mall. The Slack Scene has all the latest and greatest looking threads for guys and gals this side of the Rio Grande. So stop by and dress in style.

(left) Kevin Williams appears to be getting over-anxious while Bryon Voltzow, Cris Crisler, and John Ward are waiting hungrily for the mouth watering steak special at Seven Steers Restaurant. Conveniently located at 2516 Gulf to Bay Boulevard, Seven Steers offers tantalizing steak dinners, and if you're not satisfied, you just "ain't got good taste."

(below) After looking at watches, necklaces, rings and charms, Jerry Abel and Courtney Flammer have decided on this fashionable gold bracelet. Their choice was difficult since Sichterman's Jewelers, 37 North Ft. Harrison Avenue, offers such lovely jewelry to choose from. So remember, any special occasion warrants a gift from Sichterman's.

(above) Cindy Chafin and Pat Dunn surely seem to have their hands full! These frisky kittens are just two of the lovable pets found at Jack Staley's Pet Towne, 1451 South Belcher Road. Pet Towne also houses dogs, guinea pigs, mice and monkeys. For all you Pisces and Aquarians, aquarium supplies are available. But just one precaution—beware of the maneating piranha fish.

(right) With an atmosphere straight out of old Rome, Vince Anna's Restaurant 1242 Cleveland Street, serves a wide variety of Italian food. Vince Anna's features delicious spaghetti and all types of pizza, tomato and cheese to any combination of herbs and spices imaginable. Heather Moyer and Even Culp both agree that Vince Anna's is a great place for a late night snack.

(below) For an individual and fashionable design, Victoria Milne Beautique is the groovin' scene. Here at 1001 North Ft. Harrison, Davida Milne and Cali Brown model their favorites from the fine line of clothing. So, for that special time and that special guy, choose the clothes from the out-of-sight shop.

(above) Super Story! Paula Putzek and Laurie Kehoe get the scoop hot off the tickertape machine in the bustling news room of the Clearwater Sun. Be informed! Keep up with what's happening in the world around you by reading the Clearwater Sun. For convenience, have the Sun delivered to your home so you'll be sure not to miss those groovy color comics on Sunday.

(right) No it's not Bourbon Street in New Orleans or a Las Vegas night club. This lovely young lady is Debbie Patton of Patton's Dance Studio at 1884 Drew St. Patton's teaches ballet, toe, tap, jazz, Hawaiian, and acrobatic dancing for all ages. Learning to dance is fun under Patton's patient instructors.

(above) Butcher Boys Bob Nagin and Wayne Moss don't suspect Debbie's true intentions. The scene is Val's Ole Fashioned Meat Market 1736 Drew Street where individual attention insures good service just as in the old days. Besides special cuts of beef and pork, Val's has pickles and imported cheeses and cookies.

(below) Guys—need something for that special dance or date? Girls—in a tizzy about what to get him? Step into the rustic, early American setting at Webb's Men's Apparel, 501 S. Ft. Harrison Ave., and you'll find just what you want. Webb's specializes in clothing that really fits the man and the mood.

(above) What is this? Jeannie Street riding across the grass at Crest Lake. But as anyone can see, even a policeman wouldn't give her a ticket. Proving—"You meet the nicest people on a Honda." So to get your Honda (to meet beautiful people) make it to Honda of Clearwater at 1478 Gulf to Bay Blvd.

(above) For exquisite good taste in fine dining, Laurie Hammock and Terry Hall invite you to Baumgardners Restaurant, located at 923 North Haines Road. Baumgardners offers many courses in gourmet cuisine, from the tantalizing appetizers, to the exotic desserts for your dining pleasure. The romantic rococo decor lends a relaxed feeling of total enjoyment.

(left) A rocking cadence, a fight song, the Farmer in the Dell, the Crimson Tornado band marches on Clearwater Laundry keeps the red and gray uniforms clean so the band is always prepared for parades, half-time shows, and contests. So the next time you see the Crimson Tornado band, remember Clearwater Laundry at 601 Grand Central Ave., for the expert cleaning.

Fine food and gracious dining without extravagance is available to you within a matter of minutes at the Sweden House Smorgasbord in Clearwater, Tampa, and St. Petersburg. Pick your favorites from the cool sparkling salads and hot dishes at the buffet, then enjoy them in a relaxing atmosphere. After eating "to your stomach's content," be sure to visit the gift counter where they have fresh bakery goods and nic-nacs. You'll find Sweden Houses across Florida. Who is that funny looking kid with Jane Rice and Dennis Sheppard? He's the Big Boy from FRISCH'S. Located at 1849 Gulf to Bay Blvd., Frisch's is a great place to grab a snack after the game or between exams. Their delicious Big Boy sandwich is just the thing for a gnawing appetite. So for good food anytime, follow Jane, Dennis, and Big Boy to Frisch's.

(above) Craig Robinson, Lynn McCorkle, Doug McBriarty, and Lorrie Genovar seem to be enjoying the beautiful furnishings at Perma House Interiors. Here you'll find an excellent selection in all styles and designs of furniture. Perma House also has expert decorators ready to serve you. So if you're thinking of changing your dull drab pad to ultra-mod, or would like something new, visit Perma House, 1370 Cleveland Street.

(right) Sharyl Wilkes and Jim O'Dell the local lumber inspectors, are having a bit of fun on the lumber piles at Clearwater Lumber Co., 610 S. Myrtle Ave., 446-5931. For the best in building supplies call any one of the Big C's, also including Clearwater Roof Trusses, N. Keene Rd., 446-5901, and Clearwater Window and Specialty, 700 Druid Rd., 446-8365.

(left) Why are they so happy? They have just been through the large showroom and warehouse at Pinellas Lumber Company, 603 E. Jeffords St. The only problem now is that Linda Waddell, Sandie Futch and Ky Koch can't seem to decide what to buy. Clearwater Lumber carries all the best material for building and also those unusual items for the craftsman.

(below) Now's the time to make a pit stop at Tal Tor Racing's Supplies; 727 Lakeview Road, where you'll find a complete line of automotive accessories. Tal Tor has everything from hubcaps to radiator caps. Even if your car isn't a souped-up speed model, come on down anyway—you never know who you might meet at the speed shop. Maybe even Dale Chorost or Joan Hixson.

(above) Got a soft spot in your heart for soft cuddly animals? Linda Woodring seems to have fallen in love with these canine cuties. Is collecting little antique trinkets your hobby? Want to find something different and really out of sight for someone for graduation? Why not stop in at Showcase Gifts in the Sunshine Mall—you're sure to find what you want!

Need a jeep or a truck? Do like Betty Ann Nichols, Paula Haney, Doug McBriarty and Jim Colvin, visit Superior Auto at 2167 Drew Street for the ticket to fun. The best times are found in a Superior Auto Jeep. Not only do they specialize in jeeps and trucks, but also in parts and complete auto services for the concerned car-owners.

(above) The smart girl doesn't miss a party just because she can't do a thing with her hair. Mary Ann McMurray is no exception. She calls Phillips New York Salons at 1148 Cleveland. Phillips, Clearwater's finest head shop, specializes in hair tinting, styling, permanent waving and cutting.

(above) With Nancy McClung's head as the bulls-eye, Laura Mullendore plunges at the target. So far she's missed. If you don't quite have the knack for "plungery" either, these tools, obtained at Al Stone Plumbing Inc., 1633 S. Missouri Ave., come in quite handy elsewhere. Also available are bathtubs, water fountains, and water taps.

Remember the nice man who took your senior pictures? He was a Bryn-Alan photographer. Bryn-Alan Studios specializes in wedding pictures, portraits, and commercial photography. Most of our yearbook pictures were taken by these professionals. Remember Bryn-Alan for any occasion you wish to immortalize in pictures. They have studios at 2729 Central Avenue, St. Petersburg, phone: 826-5910, and at 208 South Boulevard, Tampa, phone: 253-0089.

Heilman's Beachcomber on Clearwater Beach is the place to go for superb dining. Ky Koch and Becky Berger relax and enjoy the atmosphere while awaiting their seafood dinner. Open at 11:30 daily Heilman's is perfect for all occasions, even those little last-minute splurges.

While visiting City of Clearwater, Gas Division, Cheryl Moore, Clearwater's Betty Crocker Scholarship recipient, demonstrates an Ever Clean Range. She knows the value of clean cooking. For information on clean living with natural gas drop by 900 Chestnut Street.

Lakeside Speed Shop, the newest shop in the area, just 10 minutes north of Drew Street on US 19 features both marine and automotive high performance equipment. Now manufacturing their own "Hot Boats" and racing "Hot Wheels," a junior stocker, they invite you to drop in. Let Gary Randall help you soup up your wheels!

Dirty air comes from cars and trash burning and industry and airplanes and on and on and on.

Well, Florida Power Corporation doesn't like it either. That's why we've spent more than $1,500,000 on air pollution control equipment in the last five years just as a start.

Because we want to breathe too.

(left) The Seaspire Restaurant, 217 Windward Passage, offers many exciting advantages. Penethia Mack and Willie Brewton agree that the fabulous view over the bay provides a glamorous atmosphere. Fine food and drink are available for your dining pleasures. The upstairs lounge is intimate, quiet, and offers excellent entertainment nightly.

(below) Make sure your boat gets excellent care keep it "high and dry" at High and Dry Marina 202 Windward Passage. Alan Snider, Kit Latham, and Bryon Voltzow know that their boat will receive the best care high in these rafters. Even if you don't own a boat, High and Dry will be glad to rent one to you at reasonable rates.

(above) Have a mechanical mind? Want to soup up your car? Take a tip from Kelly Lyons and Bob Hardy. Auto Electric, 115 S Greenwood Ave., has the latest in automotive supplies (even '70 lawn power motors). And remember Auto Electric offers complete service and check up for your engine.

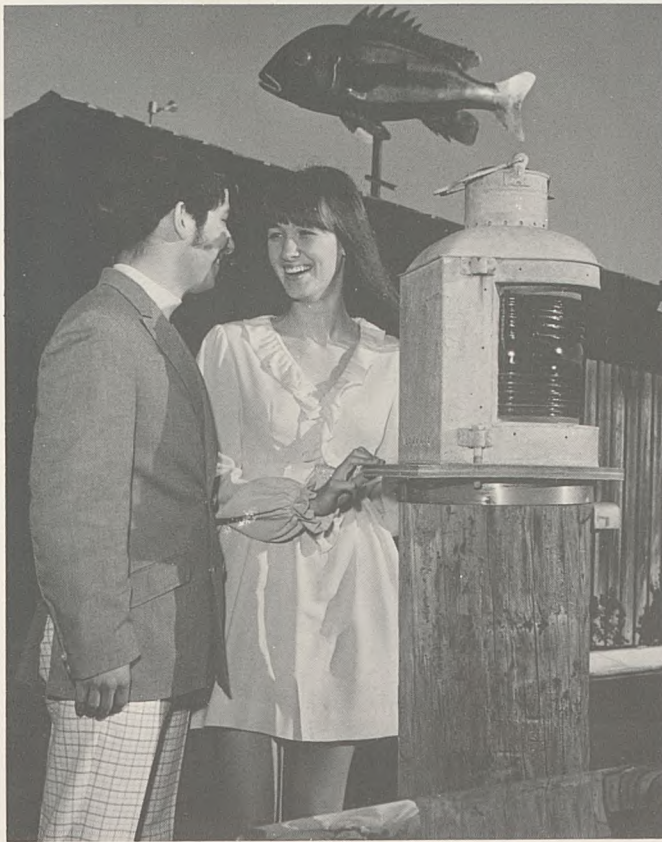

(right) Satisfied? You bet! Karen Cohen and Bill Rogers have just enjoyed a meal at Paty's Rustic Manor. Paty's, 1285 Walsingham Rd., features excellent Czechoslovakian cuisine served in a relaxing, comfortable atmosphere. So for a delicious home cooked meal be sure to visit Paty's.

(left) Want to really impress your date for the Prom, Sweetheart, or Silver Bell? Want to show your girl you really care at Christmas Valentine's Day or her birthday? The way to her heart is with flowers. Cleveland Hassell Florist, 1679 Drew St. can provide the perfect corsage, bouquet or floral arrangement for any occasion. Jimmy Durrett knows the secret of success, and Wendy Josper is glad he does.

(below) Arthur Leibowitz and Bill Lemocks stopped in to Flournoy Electric Co. Inc., 812 Chestnut St. to hire contractors for wiring their own Electric Zoo. Flournoy's contractor's are charged and ready to light your wire. So if you like shocking pink or shocking blue, let Flournoy Electric Co. turn you on.

(right) Bill Coolie (alias Joe Tourist) and Bob Smith take a break from beachhopping to browse for shades. Mandalay Pharmacy, 499 Mandalay Ave., offers a welcome refuge from the hot sun for tourist and native alike. Sun tan lotion, beach towels and hats, along with postcards (for the snowbirds to send back home) are all available at Mandalay Pharmacy.

The 60's are gone . . . and maybe a bit forgotten.

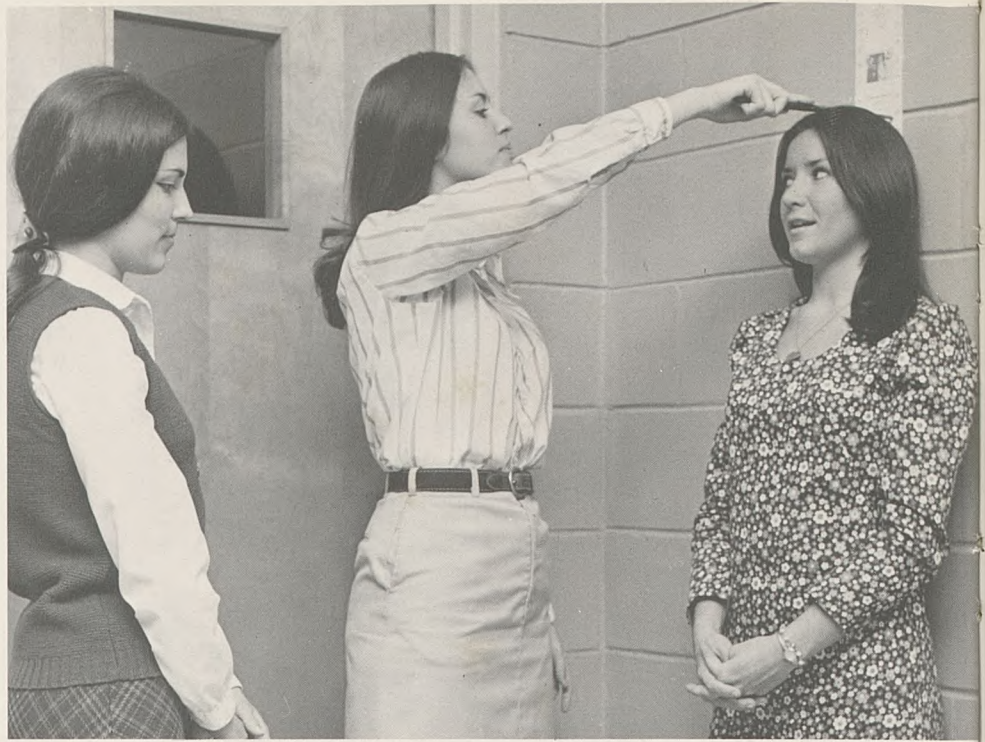

Graduating seniors must concern themselves with their futures; college . . . career . . . armed forces . . . marriage . . . In fact, the whole world worries about survival for tomorrow.

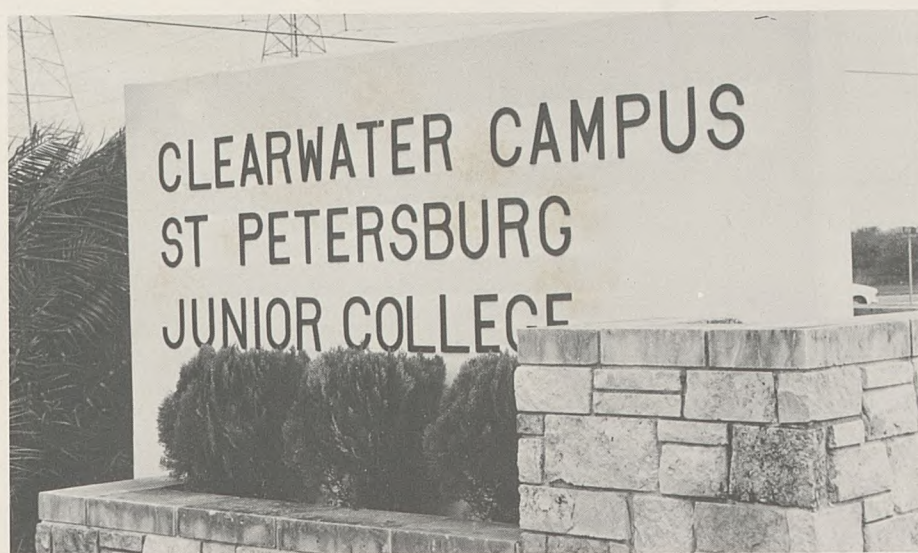

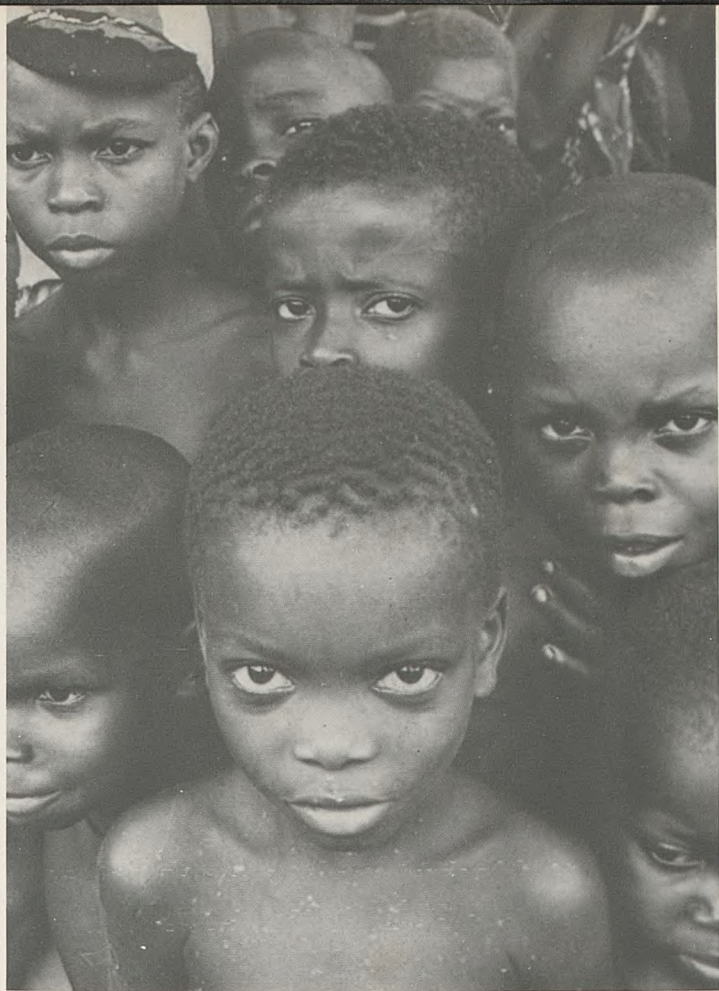

But when the students of the classes of 70-72 become wrinkled and gray (if people get wrinkled and gray forty years from now), they will hold their little grandchildren on their knees

And tell them stories of the 1960s . . .

Stories of the "olden days" . . . when the first high rise went up in the neighborhood . . . when the first black family moved in down the street . . .

"I have often walked down this street before, but . . ."

Adventure stories . . . when hundreds of teens fled their homes to seek asylum in Haight-Ashbury where they handed out flowers and love beads to passers-by . . . when thousands of people trekked through pouring rain from Alabama to Washington D.C. in the name of peace and equality . . . or when half a million young people rapped (rapt, wrapped) together in a farmer's field in N. Y. . . . when people marvel at the conquests of space . . . and when millions saw Neil Armstrong's foot touch a virgin moon . . .

"Take a giant step . . . Everyone's gone to the moon."

Stories of horror . . . of bullet wounds and knife stabs . . . and national leaders slain . . . of mass murder in Mylai . . . and swollen-bellied skeletons in Biafra . . .

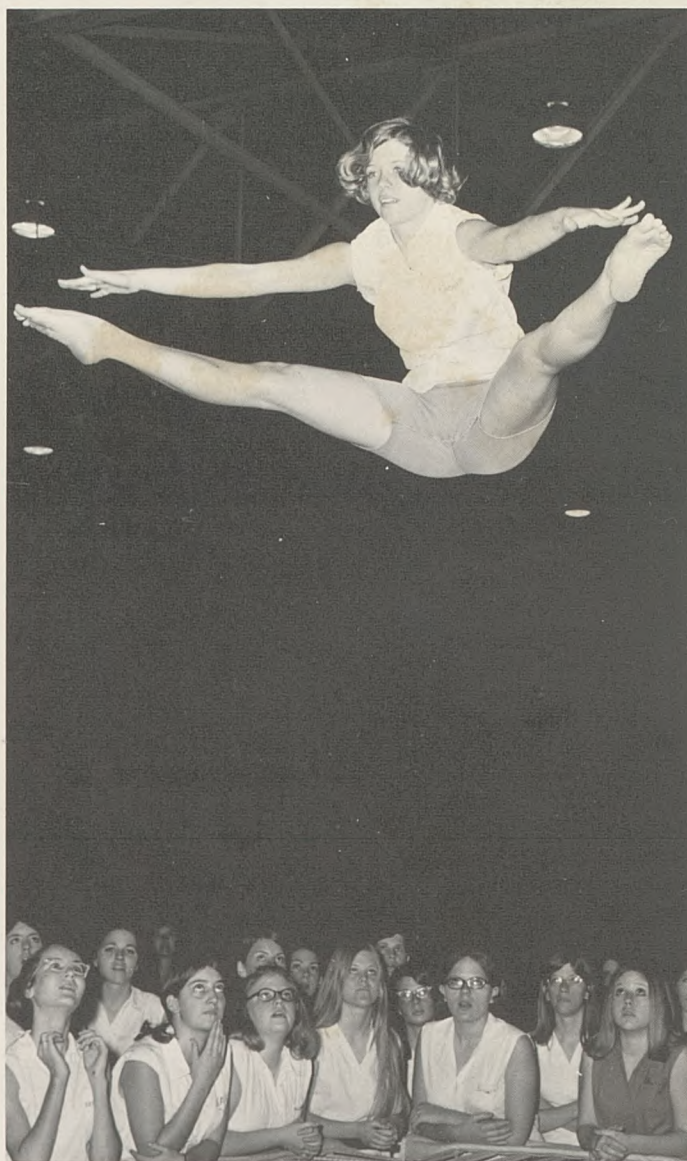

Of horror stroies of a different nature . . . when thousands of dead fish floated in waters rich in sewage instead of seaweed . . . when tides turned black and bewildered birds vainly tried to preen crude oil from their backs . . . and when acrid smog hung over American cities . . .

"Who will buy this wonderful morning."

"Such a sky you never did see."

Stories of yesterday's hip generation . . . when the words fluorescent, iridescent, psychedelic, euphoric, underground, heavy were ubiquitous . . . when the air smelled sweet of incense and grass . . . when kids put mind over matter . . . when hair and nudity were "in" and silence was "OUT" . . .

"You do not know, silence like a cancer grows."

I WANT YOU

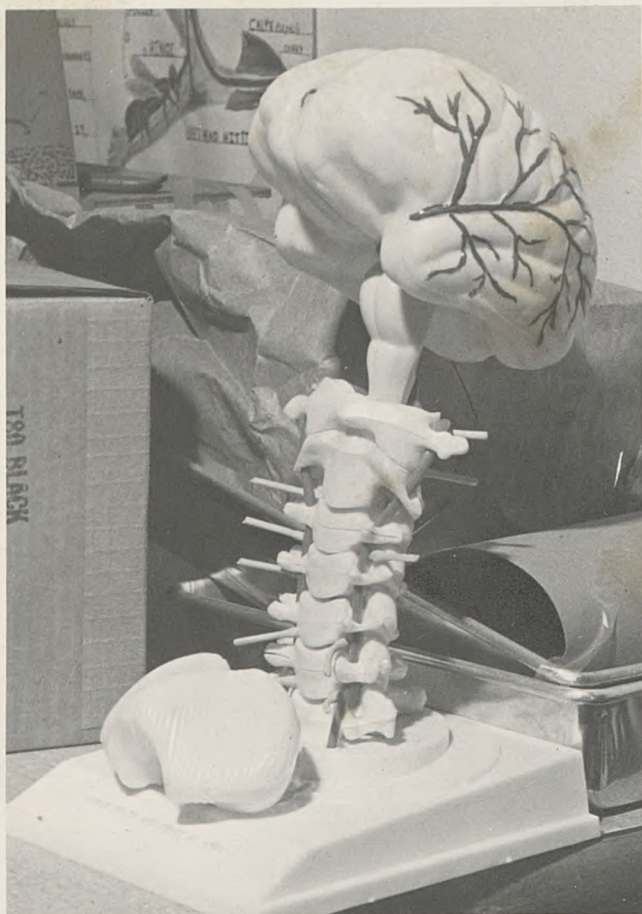

U.S. ARMY

After recalling events from the 60's; tell them tales of the 70's which lie unhappened.

Will they be stories of the day pot and abortion were legalized . . . when cigarette ads and commercials were banned . . . when parents were forbidden from having more than two children . . . when the Pope condoned birth control . . . when the first man had an artificial blood transplant . . . when eighteen year olds got the vote . . . when draft became voluntary . . . when the first black man was elected president . . . when Americans worked a 24-hour week . . . when Red China was admitted to the U.N. . . . when the first electric car appeared on the market . . . when "calculated obsolescence" included war . . .

"In the year 2525, if man is still alive."

Epilogue

"Now is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. It is, perhaps the end of the beginning."

When the late Winston Churchill used this phrase it was in reference to World War II. But this quote could apply to all of the beginnings and endings that high school has stood for; from assemblies, senior privileges, and Florida Placement Test to all of the things that the '60s signified and that the new decade holds for us — the moon, the earth's ecology, and, maybe even peace.

The Aqua Clara has tried to capture a bit of it all, the big and the small; the near and the far. But without the help and patience of many people, we couldn't have made it.

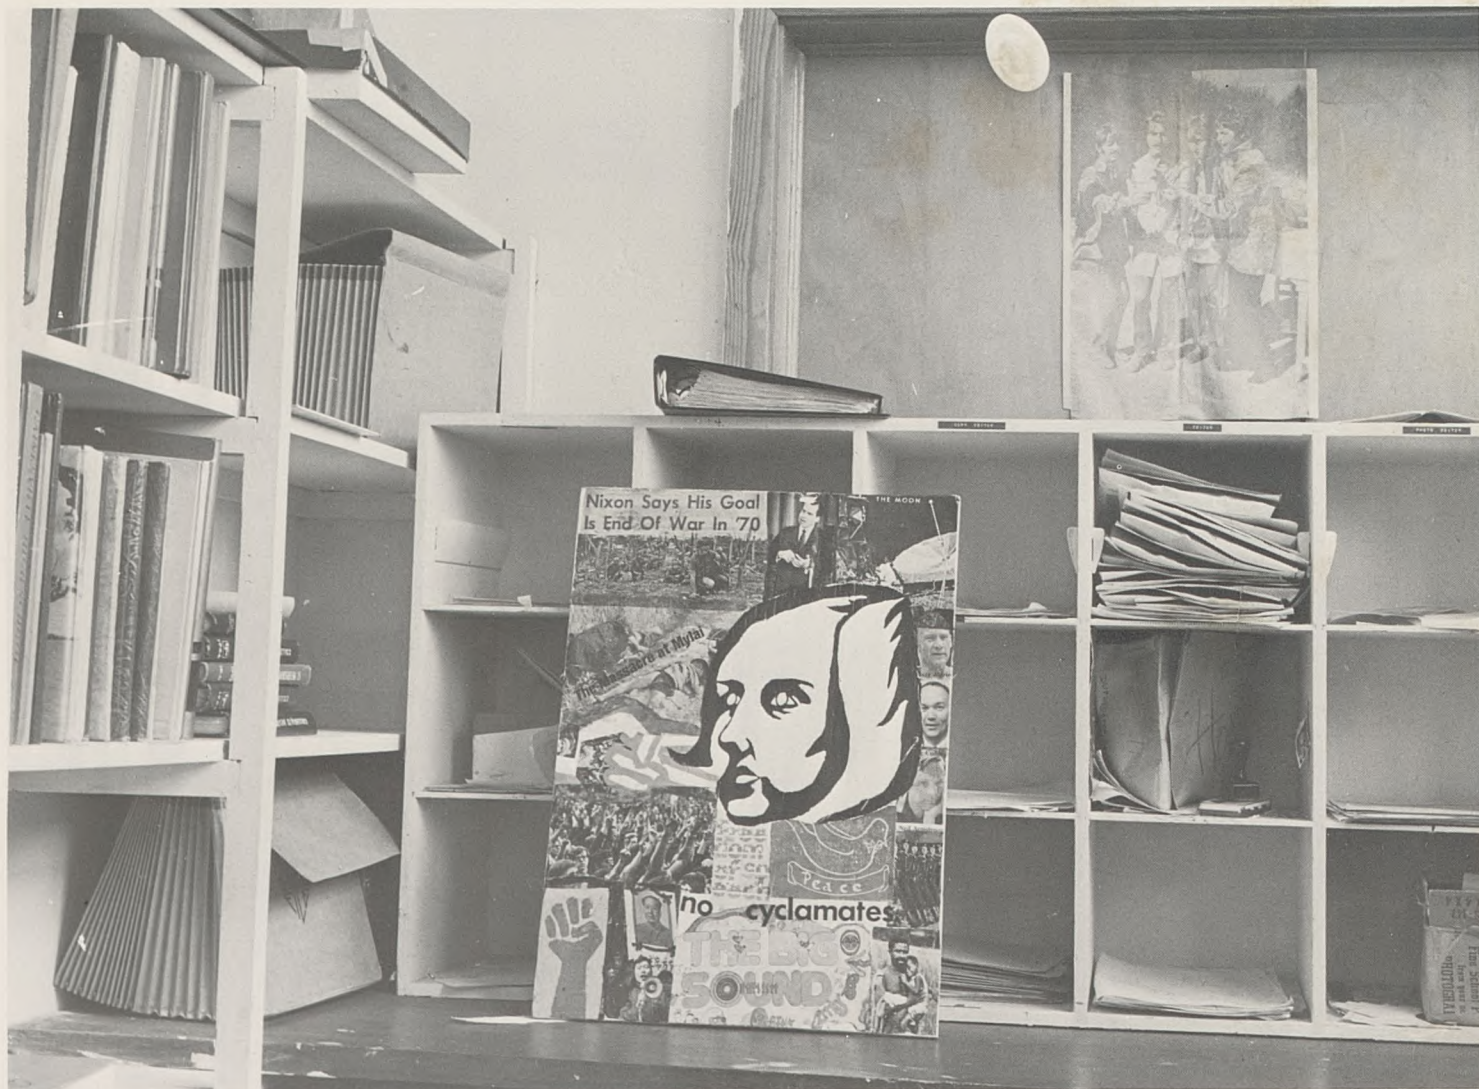

So, thank you:

Paul Baker, Al Fischer, and Cliff "Hang" MacBroom from Bryn-Alan, Ramada Inn, Benton & Co., Kapok Tree, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Crisler, St. Pete Times, Clearwater Sun, and the Belleview Biltmore. A special thanks goes to Sue Stemm for a beautiful cover. And to the mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, boy friends, and girl friends of all the staff that were neglected during crises and deadlines. And, of course, the staff would not have held together without the words of praise (and often times other things) that our adviser, affectionately known as TCP, Mr. Thomas Pierce, offered.

This year has been a hectic one for the staff — it holds memories that will long be regarded as sacred only to us:

"Did you leave the key in the secret place . . . where's the job stamp? . . . let's have a party . . . this is NOT a study hall . . . deadline, what deadline? . . . Sanders ! ! ! . . . strike overs don't make it . . . have YOU got the marking pen? . . .

Karen

It's been a great year, one of the first I've really enjoyed. I think it's because all of us are together. Especially in gym. Since we're not taking it next year, I hope at least we'll have a class or two together. Good luck + have a good summer.

Don't raise too much hell!

Island Estates couldn't handle it all! (Bob no. 1) One of the greatest of all times, huh) Ⓟ Sundberg No, I don't feel too dumb. Squashho!)

 I'll see you (THANKS FOR PEN) ~~WHAHA~~ SHADES OF GREEN!!
 I won't see you next year very much in all the advanced classes & you won't be in all the
 it sure has been great knowing you this year - your "dotes" - I'm kidding!!
 Now remember - never smoke or drive a car or have more than 2 kids - That is if you can't help it control!! Chemistry just won't be the same without you kicking me, drawing on me, etc. the wearing my rings, hitting, bleeding all over the place & my Oh well that's the break. I see you in heaven (right?) my end will be ~~here~~ soon I suppose. ☺ Broken cross ☺ peace in Christ.

Karen,

I'm really glad that we got to be good friends. Although we had (+ still have) our disagreements, we still got along good. Thank-you for tollerating my bad moods & remarks.

We'll have to do some stuff together this summer if we're ever home at the same time. Keep up the ole chase after Frenchie & be good

Love you,

To the slinky beauty who made me feel beautiful with your greetings, you possess a rare combination beauty, brains and a great personality. Stay as you are, give take care and Remember to keep the faith. Shalom

Karen,
 Stay sweet,
 nice, smile,
 etc. ...
 Love you
 all

Karen,
 What can I say?
 I don't know you too well but we suffered through that together and that class will stay with me forever. Wish I could see you next year but
 I'll be up in a mountain somewhere.
 Be good and better luck in getting the teachers next year.

Love,

Karen,
 I sure am glad I met
 you this year & I hope
 we're in more classes together next year. More than likely you'll end up #1 like my mom's
 - house. Ha! Lots of luck next year &
 stay as sweet &
 cute as you are now.

Karen,
 To a real sweet
 girl who suffered through Latin & knew who will have a powerful. Best of luck always. Mark
